Creating The National Health Service Aneurin Bevan And The Medical Lords:

Creating the National Health Service Marvin Rintala, 2003 The origins of the NHS are the subject of this study that presents evidence on the key players who participated in the founding of the system The author also traces those who opposed the NHS

Shaping Health Policy Mark Exworthy, 2012 This collection written by leading health policy researchers examines the role that case studies play in British health policy covering key health policy literatures in the policy process analytical frameworks and seminal moments of the NHS

Healthcare and the Troubles Ruth Duffy, 2024-07-15 This book provides the first detailed study of healthcare during the period of the Troubles in Northern Ireland 1968 1998 While there have been some studies of the effects of conflict in the context of Northern Ireland to date there have been no in depth histories of the impact of the Troubles on healthcare and the experiences of healthcare professionals Ruth Duffy's work combines analysis of archival research and oral history interviews to reveal the widespread impact of the conflict on healthcare facilities their staff and patients as well as the broader societal implications of providing services during the Troubles The book allows the voices of those who worked on the frontline to be heard for the first time as well as exploring important issues such as medical ethics and neutrality It offers new and valuable insights into the cost of the Northern Ireland conflict and its legacy today

Making Medicare Gregory Marchildon, 2012-11-23 The Canadian health care system is so indisputably tied to our national identity that its founder Tommy Douglas was voted the greatest Canadian of all time in a CBC television contest However very little has been written to date on how Medicare as we know it was developed and implemented This collection fills a serious gap in the existing literature by providing a comprehensive policy history of Medicare in Canada Making Medicare features explorations of the experiments that predated the federal government's decision to implement the Saskatchewan health care model from Newfoundland's cottage hospital system to Bennetcare in British Columbia It also includes essays by key individuals including health practitioners and two premiers who played a role in the implementation of Medicare and the landmark Royal Commission on Health Services Along with political scientists policy specialists medical historians and health practitioners this collection will appeal to anyone interested in the history and legacy of one of Canada's most visible and centrally important institutions

The Affordable Care Act and Medicare in Comparative Context Eleanor D. Kinney, 2015-07-20 This book provides a comprehensive and approachable overview of Medicare under the Affordable Care Act The author illustrates how the ACA addresses the long term fiscal and demographic challenges facing Medicare as well as the potential for Medicare to become a single payer system

Law and Society in England 1750-1950 William Cornish, Stephen Banks, Charles Mitchell, Paul Mitchell, Rebecca Probert, 2019-10-31 Law and Society in England 1750 1950 is an indispensable text for those wishing to study English legal history and to understand the foundations of the modern British state In this new updated edition the authors explore the complex relationship between legal and social change They consider the ways in which those in power themselves imagined and initiated reform and the ways in which they were obliged to respond to demands for change from outside the legal and political classes What emerges is a lively and critical account of the evolution of modern rights and expectations and an engaging study of the formation of contemporary social administrative and legal institutions and ideas and the road that was travelled to create them The book is divided into eight chapters Institutions and Ideas Land Commerce and Industry Labour Relations The Family Poverty and Education Accidents and Crime This extensively referenced analysis of modern social and legal history will be invaluable to students and teachers of English law political science and social history The Making of the National Health Service John E. Pater,1981 The University of Chicago Magazine ,2003 Labour History Review ,2004 The English Question Robert Hazell,2006-06-12 This book analyses the English Question does England need to find its own political voice following devolution to Scotland and Wales or are the English content to muddle through Cells in the Body Politic Jonathan David Hagood,2008 The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords,1981 The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard), Official Report, 5th Series Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords,1981 Obituaries from the Times ,1951 Including an index to all obituaries and tributes appearing in the Times British Medical Journal ,1958 An Introduction to Canada's Public Social Services Frank J. McGilly,1998 In the mid 1990s every established social program in Canada was fundamentally reassessed most were radically changed Faced with continuing deficits and mounting debts all the provinces changed the basic structure of their public assistance programs and or reduced their benefits and looked for ways to cut spending on hospital and medical services For its part the federal government revamped unemployment insurance replaced long standing universal benefits Family Allowances and Old Age Security with programs based on tax expenditures that exclude many above average income Canadians and altered the basis and reduced the scale of its sharing of the costs of provincial programs In this revised edition of what has become a standard text Dr Frank McGilly fits these recent developments into context He explains how governmental income and health care programs have evolved in response to changes in Canadian society how they function and how they are financed and administered The author not only analyses how the programs work but also explores their underlying policy orientations Topics covered include income programs for seniors and for the unemployed workers compensation public assistance child and family benefits hospitalization insurance medicare and occupational and community health Special attention is given to the dynamics of the federal provincial relationship in social policy This volume lays the groundwork for an informed critique of social policy in Canada to provoke such a critique the strengths and weaknesses of programs as perceived from various points of view are assessed The book concludes with an overview of the challenges facing the Canadian welfare state on the threshold of the twenty first century The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003 Parliamentary Debates (Hansard) Great Britain.
