Creating Community with Food and Drink in Merovingian Gaul B. Effros, 2019-07-24 Creating Community with Food and Drink in Merovingian Gaul exposes the manner in which feasting and fasting in other words ritualized actions not performed solely for the purpose of nourishment were central to social interaction in Gaul both prior and subsequent to Christianization of the mixed population of Franks and Gallo Romans In exploring these issues using a multidisciplinary methodology Effros suggests that scholars may assess historical manifestations of the use of food and drink to create and reinforce the social hierarchy Effros addresses the tensions between monastic and lay communities and focuses on patronage through food and drink as a source of informal power a subject too often overlooked in favour of institutional structures more familiar to twentieth century historians Cuisine and Empire Rachel Laudan, 2015-04-03 Rachel Laudan tells the remarkable story of the rise and fall of the world's great cuisines from the mastery of grain cooking some twenty thousand years ago to the present in this superbly researched book Probing beneath the apparent confusion of dozens of cuisines to reveal the underlying simplicity of the culinary family tree she shows how periodic seismic shifts in culinary philosophy beliefs about health the economy politics society and the gods prompted the construction of new cuisines a handful of which chosen as the cuisines of empires came to dominate the globe Cuisine and Empire shows how merchants missionaries and the military took cuisines over mountains oceans deserts and across political frontiers Laudan's innovative narrative treats cuisine like language clothing or architecture as something constructed by humans By emphasizing how cooking turns farm products into food and by taking the globe rather than the nation as the stage she challenges the agrarian romantic and nationalistic myths that underlie the contemporary food movement Ethnic Identity and the Archaeology of the aduentus Saxonum James M. Harland, 2025-10-01 For centuries archaeologists have excavated the soils of Britain to uncover finds from the early medieval past These finds have been used to reconstruct the alleged communities migration patterns and expressions of identity of coherent groups who can be regarded as ethnic Anglo Saxons Even in the modern day when social constructionism has been largely accepted by scholars this paradigm still persists This book challenges the ethnic paradigm As the first historiographical study of approaches to ethnic identity in modern Anglo Saxon archaeology it reveals these approaches to be incompatible with current scholarly understandings of ethnicity Drawing upon post structuralist approaches to self and community it highlights the empirical difficulties the archaeology of ethnicity in early medieval Britain faces and proposes steps toward an alternative understanding of the role played by the communities of lowland Britain both migrants from across the North Sea and those already present in transforming the Roman world ACompanion to the Eucharist in the Middle Ages Ian Levy, Gary Macy, Kristen Van Ausdall, 2011-10-28 The Eucharist in the European Middle Ages was a multimedia event First and foremost it was a drama a pageant a liturgy The setting itself was impressive Stunning artwork adorned massive buildings Underlying and supporting the liturgy the art and the architecture was a carefully constructed theological world of thought and belief Popular beliefs spilling over into the magical celebrated that presence in several tumultuous forms Church law regulated how far such practice might go as well as who was allowed to perform the liturgy and how and when it might be performed This volume presents the medieval Eucharist in all its glory combining introductory essays on the liturgy art theology architecture devotion and theology Contributors include Celia Chazelle Michael Driscoll Edward Foley Stephen Edmund Lahey Lizette Larson Miller Ian Christopher Levy Gerhard Lutz Gary Macy Miri Rubin Elizabeth Saxon Kristen Van Ausdall and Joseph Wawrykow Power and Pleasure Hugh M. Thomas, 2020-11-19 Although King John is remembered for his political and military failures he also resided over a magnificent court Power and Pleasure reconstructs life at the court of King John and explores how his court produced both pleasure and soft power Much work exists on courts of the late medieval and early modern periods but the jump in record keeping under John allows a detailed reconstruction of court life for an earlier period Power and Pleasure Court Life under King John 1199 1216 examines the many facets of John's court exploring hunting feasting castles landscapes material luxury chivalry sexual coercion and religious activities It explains how John mishandled his use of soft power just as he failed to exploit his financial and military advantages and why he received so little political benefit from his magnificent court John's court is viewed in comparison to other courts of the time and in previous and subsequent centuries Of Tripod and Palate R. Sterckx, 2005-10-06 Attitudes toward food and commensality constituted a central fiber in the social religious and political fabric of ancient Chinese society The offering of sacrifices the banqueting of guests and the ritual preparation prohibition or consumption of food and drink were central elements in each of China's three main religious traditions the Classicist Confucian tradition religious Daoism and Buddhism What links late Shang and Zhou bronze vessels to Buddhist dietary codes or Daoist recipes for immortality is a poignant testimony that culinary activity fasting and feasting governed not only human relationships but also fermented the communication between humans and the spirit world In Of Tripod and Palate leading scholars examine the relationship between secular and religious food culture in ancient China from various Medieval Romance and the Construction of Heterosexuality L. Sylvester, 2008-07-21 This book perspectives interrogates our ideas about heterosexuality through examination of medieval romance narratives Familiar configurations of romantic fiction such as male desire overwhelming feminine reluctance and the aloof masculine hero undone by love derive from this period This book tests current theories of language and desire through stylistic analysis examining transitivity choices and speech acts in sexual encounters and conversations in medieval romances In the context of current preoccupations with gender and sexuality and consent in rape cases this study is of interest to scholars investigating language and sexuality as well as those researching and teaching medieval literature and culture Imported Ceramics and the Rural Consumer in Late Roman Mediterranean Gaul Sebastian F.
