Creating The Couple Love Marriage And Hollywood Performance:

Creating the Couple Virginia Wright Wexman,1993-06-21 This examination of the changing relationships between men and women in modern culture argues that Hollywood film has often been a powerful mirror of American romance and sexuality The author notes also how changing acting styles have led to new types of relationships being depicted on screen

Screen Couple Chemistry Martha P. Nochimson,2010-07-05 Astaire and Rogers Tracy and Hepburn Just the mention of their names evokes the powerful chemistry between these screen couples which utterly transcended the often formulaic films in which they appeared together Indeed watching the synergistic flow of energy between charismatic screen partners is one of the great pleasures of cinema and television as well as an important vehicle for thinking through issues of intimacy and gender relations In this book Martha P Nochimson engages in a groundbreaking study of screen couple chemistry She begins by classifying various types of couples to define what sets the synergistic couple apart from other onscreen pairings Then she moves into extended discussions of four enduring screen couples Maureen O Sullivan Johnny Weissmuller Myrna Loy William Powell Fred Astaire Ginger Rogers and Katharine Hepburn Spencer Tracy Using theories of neuroscience she demonstrates that their onscreen chemistry is a very real phenomenon powerful enough to subvert conventional formulations of male female relations Material she has uncovered in the infamous Production Code Administration files illuminates the historical context of her contentions Finally Nochimson traces the screen couple to its present day incarnation in such pairs as Woody Allen Diane Keaton Scully Mulder of The X Files and Cliff Claire Huxtable of The Cosby Show The Cinema Book

Bloomsbury Publishing,2019-07-25 The Cinema Book is widely recognised as the ultimate guide to cinema Authoritative and comprehensive the third edition has been extensively revised updated and expanded in response to developments in cinema and cinema studies Lavishly illustrated in colour this edition features a wealth of exciting new sections and in depth case studies Sections address Hollywood and other World cinema histories key genres in both fiction and non fiction film issues such as stars technology and authorship and major theoretical approaches to understanding film Reframing Screen

Performance Cynthia Baron,Sharon Marie Carnicke,2010-02-11 A significant contribution to the literature on screen performance studies Reframing Screen Performance brings the study of film acting up to date It should be of interest to those within cinema studies as well as general readers Frank P Tomasulo Florida State University Reframing Screen Performance is a groundbreaking study of film acting that challenges the long held belief that great cinematic performances are created in the editing room Surveying the changing attitudes and practices of film acting from the silent films of Charlie Chaplin to the rise of Lee Strasberg's Actor's Studio in the 1950s to the eclecticism found in contemporary cinema this volume argues that screen acting is a vital component of film and that it can be understood in the same way as theatrical performance This richly illustrated volume shows how and why the evocative details of actors voices gestures expressions and actions are as significant as filmic narrative and audiovisual design The book features in depth studies of performances by Anjelica Huston John Cusack and Julianne Moore among others alongside subtle analyses of directors like Robert Altman and Akira Kurosawa Sally Potter and Orson Welles The book bridges the disparate fields of cinema studies and theater studies as it persuasively demonstrates the how theater theory can be illuminate the screen actor s craft Reframing Screen Performance brings the study of film acting into the twenty first century and is an essential text for actors directors cinema studies scholars and cinephiles eager to know more about the building blocks of memorable screen performance Cynthia Baron is Associate Professor of Film Studies at Bowling Green State University and co editor of More Than a Method Trends and Traditions in Contemporary Film Performance Sharon Carnicke is Professor of Theater and Slavic Studies and Associate Dean of Theater at the University of Southern California and author of Stanislavsky in Focus Movie Acting, the Film Reader Pamela Robertson Wojcik,2004 Combining classic and recent essays and examining key issues such Movie Acting the Film Reader explores one of the most central but often overlooked aspects of cinema film acting The Prime of Life Steven Mintz,2015-04-07 By drawing on 400 years of social and economic history the book presents a thoughtful and thorough guide through the life stages Library Journal Adulthood today is undergoing profound transformations Men and women wait until their thirties to marry have children and establish full time careers occupying a prolonged period in which they are no longer adolescents but still lack the traditional emblems of adult identity People at midlife struggle to sustain relationships with friends and partners to achieve fulfilling careers to raise their children successfully and to age gracefully The Prime of Life puts today s challenges into new perspective by exploring how past generations navigated the passage to maturity Whereas adulthood once meant culturally prescribed roles and relationships the social and economic convulsions of the last sixty years have transformed it fundamentally tearing up these shared scripts and leaving adults to fashion meaning and coherence in an increasingly individualistic culture Emphasizing adulthood s joys and fulfillments as well as its frustrations and regrets Mintz shows how cultural and historical circumstances have consistently reshaped what it means to be a grown up in contemporary society A triumph of historical writing The Spectator Mintz s message that there are many ways to wear the mantle of responsible adulthood and that the 1950s model is a mere blip on history s radar is deeply necessary and long overdue New York Times Book Review Describing the cultural economic and social changes from the Colonial era to today s world Mintz argues that neither religious nor secular middle class values are adequate responses to the new generation s problems Choice A thoughtful and strangely encouraging tour of an often difficult life stage Kirkus Reviews Working-Class Courtship, Marriage, and Divorce in Scotland, 1855-1939 Eleanor Gordon,Jeff Meek,Katie Barclay,2025-10-25 This is the first book length study of the history of working class courtship and marriage in Scotland from the establishment of civil registration to the introduction in 1939 of legislation which abolished irregular marriage and introduced civil marriage Adopting a life course approach the book explores the social economic and cultural contexts of romantic partnerships from courtship through to marital or family dissolution Drawing from a wide range of sources that capture official accounts and discourses on the one hand and the testimony and experience of working class people on the other the book offers a uniquely broad and textured view of courtship and marriage in this period In so doing it advances recent historiographical debates surrounding marriage in the Anglophone world particularly the mutability of love and whether the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries constituted a social and cultural turning point for the working classes in terms of choice of marriage partner the nature of the marital relationship and the parent child relationship The book also engages with debates about extra marital sexual activity in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries whether the family was more or less stable than the contemporary family and the different ways that marriages broke down before the advent of divorce reform This has important implications for wider European and North American historiography and raises timely questions about the primacy of the traditional family in policy and public discourse

The Changing Concepts of Love Ming-ju Fan,1994 Critical Matrix ,1999 The Birth of Whiteness Daniel Bernardi,1996 Heroes and Heritage Th Damsteegt,2003 An analysis of the role of the protagonist is central to text interpretation Providing examples of such analyses the fourteen articles in this volume deal with the protagonist in mainly 20th century North Indian films and literary texts Basically they aim to answer two questions what techniques have been used by the author or director to present a specific protagonist and what ideas or even ideology may have inspired the author to create that character The latter question concerning the view of life or society that has consciously or unconsciously influenced the creator of a South Asian text or film has occasionally been investigated in the past too but here answers are argued on the basis of an analysis of narrative techniques rather than an intuitive approach Besides a historical survey of protagonists in 20th century Hindi literature this volume offers detailed discussions of a wide variety of heroes among them children aged men courtesans women fighting for Independence and Urdu poets The literary texts analysed here belong to various genres novel short story drama poetry and the papers demonstrate several analytical methods such as narratology film analysis feminist literary analysis and postcolonial studies

Home, Work, and Play John C. Walsh,James William Opp,2006 Spanning the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Home Work and Play presents a collection of recent work in Canadian social history The essays have been specifically chosen to offer insight into the important changes that have occurred within the field over the past ten years while the unique organization of home work and play helps to provide an organizational structure that students can manage and learn from Underlying the three sections are the threads of class race and gender which interweave and unify the collection This is a reader designed as a core text for courses in Canadian social history The essays are organized around the two traditional social history themes of home and work and around a newer theme play which encompasses leisure sports consumerism and sexuality The collection of 22 essays will be supplemented by three visual resources which will contain photographs advertisements architectural floor plans and cartoons

Queen of the 'B's Annette Kuhn,1995-08-24 Although Ida Lupino is best known as a leading actress in many Hollywood B movies her work as a filmmaker has been neglected by critics historians and audiences In the late 1940s Lupino turned writer producer and director in her own independent production company The films she made beginning with Not Wanted in 1949 were low budget pictures taking an uncompromising approach to controversial subject matter unmarried motherhood disability rape bigamy Lupino is exceptional as the only woman to have directed a visible body of films in the male dominated Hollywood of the 1950s The continuation of that directorial career in television throughout the 1960s strengthens the claim that Lupino is the most prolific and creatively powerful woman director ever to have worked in the moving image industry This book is the first extensive critical study of Ida Lupino's work as a director in both film and television It features in depth essays on each of the films she directed and on her work in television including such popular series as The Fugitive and The Twilight Zone with the most complete credit listing yet published of her television work Viewing Lupino's oeuvre in historical social industrial and aesthetic contexts all the contributors demonstrate that the work repays informed and sensitive readings and many consider it in light of contemporary feminist debates on cinema Queen of the B's is a long overdue reassessment of an important and pioneering director

The Hitchcock Annual Anthology Sidney Gottlieb, Richard Allen, 2009 This anthology features contributions from such leading critics as Charles Barr Thomas Elsaesser Bill Krohn and Mark Rappaport and includes essays on the full range of Hitchcock's work from the lesser known silents to his late American masterpieces

Best-sellers and Their Film Adaptations in Postwar America Jane Hendler, 2001 Working with the claim that gender identity emerged as a primary signifier of national identity within Cold War ideology Jane Hendler provides a detailed illuminating analysis of how five best sellers and their film adaptations address a range of intersecting historical issues including communist containment corporate culture family life and race relations all of which were integrally linked to gender and key issues of American identity

REFLECTIONS IN MALE EYE Gaylyn Studlar, David Desser, 1993-04-17 Despite his achievements Huston's work has often been spurned by movie critics and film scholars This anthology the first in depth study of Huston's films since his death in 1987 challenges the conventional wisdom through a vigorous reassessment of the director's work Bringing together recent essays classic pieces by Andrew Sarris and James Agee as well as two Huston short stories and an interview with the filmmaker Reflections in a Male Eye explores the ideology of Huston's films their social and political backdrop and his vision of the American male
