Creations In Miniature:

Creations Sven Rune Havsteen, 2007 The meaning of the noun creation and the verb to create range from the traditional theological idea of God creating ex nihilo to a more recent sense of the process of artistic conception This collection of thirteen essays written by scholars of music literature the visual arts and theology explores the complicated relationship between medieval rituals and theology and the development of an idea of human artistic creation which came to the fore in the sixteenth century The volume concentrates on the period from the Carolingians to the Counter Reformation but also includes some twentieth century musicians Each essay is dedicated to a particular topic concerned with ritual or artistic beginnings inventions harmony and disharmony as well as representations or celebrations of creation Central themes include the interplay of the ideas of God as creator of God acting and recreating in medieval liturgy of God as artist the deus artifex of the Pythagorean cosmology which was occasionally referred to as recently as the early nineteenth century and finally of the homo creator a concept in which man reflected and eventually replaced God in his artistic creativity This book therefore features new significant individual contributions from a range of scholarly disciplines but taken as a whole it also constitutes a complex interdisciplinary study with large scale historical constructions
