Reames, 2022-11-10 This volume presents a collection of critical essays that center women's friendship in women's literary and artistic production Analyzing cultural portrayals of women's friendships in fiction letters and film these essays collectively suggest new models of literary interpretation that do not prioritize heterosexual romance Instead this book represents friendships as mature and meaningful relationships that contribute to identity formation and political coalition Both the supportive and competitive aspects of friendships are shown to be crucial to women's identities as individuals political citizens and artists Addressing the complexities of how 20th and 21st century cultural texts construe women's friendships as they navigate patriarchal institutions this collection advances scholarship on friendship beyond men and masculine models      Theorizing Black Feminisms Abena P. A. Busia, Stanlie M. James, 2005-06-28 First published in 1993 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1994-02      Post Critical Museology Andrew Dewdney, David Dibosa, Victoria Walsh, 2013-01-25 Post Critical Museology considers what the role of the public and the experience of audiences means to the everyday work of the art museum It does this from the perspectives of the art museum itself as well as from the visitors it seeks Through the analysis of material gathered from a major collaborative research project carried out at Tate Britain in London the book develops a conceptual reconfiguration of the relationship between art culture and society in which questions about the art museum's relationship to global migration and the new media ecologies are examined It suggests that whilst European museums have previously been studied as institutions of collection heritage and tradition however modern their focus it is now better to consider them as distributive networks in which value travels along transmedial and transcultural lines Post Critical Museology is intended as a contribution to progressive museological thinking and practice and calls for a new alignment of academics and professionals in what it announces as post critical museology An alignment that is committed to rethinking what an art museum in the twenty first century could be as well as what knowledge and understanding its future practitioners might draw upon in a rapidly changing social and cultural context The book aims to be essential reading in the growing field of museum studies It will also be of professional interest to all those working in the cultural sphere including museum professionals policy makers and art managers      Producing Children Peter C. Kunze, Victoria Ford Smith, 2025-04-15 Producing Children imagines the possibility indeed the inevitability of a creative relation between children as producers and consumers by revising the long established hierarchical relation between adults and children The chapters in this collection reveal that studying child produced culture complicates our received understandings of children's culture as culture by adults for children about children They also underscore children s literature as a cultural phenomenon that moves across and beyond genres forms and media As a whole this collection reveals that attention to child produced culture invites dialogue and collaboration across fields and disciplines invested in the critical understanding of children as embodied beings and childhood as both a stage of development and discursive construct with social political economic and cultural dimensions and influence With the ongoing vibrancy of childhood studies as a multidisciplinary area of inquiry studies of child produced culture provide scholars with an exciting opportunity to complicate enrich and expand theorization of childhood creativity children s culture and even children themselves
