Frederick, 2008-04-15 In a series of articles specifically commissioned for this volume some of today's most distinguished business ethicists survey the main areas of interest and concern in the field of business ethics Sections of the book cover topics such as the often easy relation between business ethics and capitalism the link between business ethics and ethical theory how ethics applies to specific problems in the business world the connection between business ethics and related academic disciplines and the practice of business ethics in modern corporations Includes extensive accessible discussion of all of the main areas of interest and debate in business ethics Features all original contributions by distinguished authors in business ethics Includes an annotated table of contents bibliographies of the relevant literature and a list of internet sources of material on business ethics Perfect comprehensive book for use in business ethics courses

Whistleblowing in the Australian Public Sector A. J. Brown, 2008-09-01 The product of one of the world's most comprehensive research projects on whistleblowing evidence from over 8 000 public servants in over 100 federal state and local government agencies shows that whistleblowers can and do survive and that often their role is highly valued Public sector managers face significant challenges in better managing and protecting whistleblowers There is great variation between the many public agencies making the effort and the many agencies where the outcomes for managers and whistleblowers alike are still likely to be grim This book is compulsory reading for all public sector managers who wish to turn this negative trend around and for anyone interested in public accountability generally

Business Ethics Damian Grace, Stephen Cohen, 1998 How should business deal with society's increasing demands for ethical and social responsibility This book builds on the foundations of the first edition and expands the range of issues covered

Thinking Things Through Andrew Murray, 2012-11-30 The life of a philosopher is foremost the life of thinking but it is also the life of imagination that dreams of and investigates possibilities that might not otherwise have been raised The life of a Christian is the life of Faith Hope and Charity and so it both looks to things beyond this world and regards this world with compassion The two can work together Faith softens reason and reason sharpens Faith Imagination finds new ways to articulate in concrete circumstances what has belonged to long traditions of thought These essays cover a wide range of topics either by way of simple reflection on life or in response to issues that arose around the time of their writing The period of their writing was a varied one Life looked so stable in the mid nineties that we contemplated Australia becoming a republic and sought Aboriginal reconciliation It remained uncomplicated at the time of the Olympic Games in 2000 but became troubled by political events and by the terrorist attacks of 2001 The essays respond to the issues of this time Four essays not published in the Weekly have been added to take note of more recent changes that have taken place in the Church and in our world

Thinking Skills for Professionals B. Greetham,2016-04-30 This book gives professionals and business people the essential tools to become better thinkers and decision makers It sets out simple methods and techniques to avoid poor decision making by developing our conceptual creative and critical thinking skills along with ways of incorporating them within our daily lives
