Leadership through the Classics Gregory P Prastacos,Fuming Wang,Klas Eric Soderquist,2013-02-01 The unforeseeably complex socio economic and environmental challenges of the 21st century must be tackled by placing faith in the power of mankind to integrate established wisdom and new knowledge and in our ability to collaborate for a sustainable future Departing from this a global 2011 conference debating papers devoted to the impact of ancient philosophy focusing on Confucius and Aristotle in modern leadership and management was organized by Hanban the Athens University of Economics Business and the University of International Economics Business Beijing China A rich sourcebook for a broad audience this unique volume presents the wide array of conference contributions by international thought leaders Departing from a foundation of general concepts of ethics and leadership the book then delves into questions about how philosophy shape emerging economic and business systems to end with direct lessons from ancient philosophy for contemporary business challenges

Mission Statements John W. Graham,Wendy C. Havlick,1994-06-06 First published in 1994 Mission Statements A Guide to the Corporate and Nonprofit Sectors offers the most exciting opportunities for advancing the study of organization direction in the four decades that it has been actively pursued The study of missions of organizations has remained on the back burner of scholarly pursuits because of the great difficulty that researchers have faced in gathering appropriate formal statements from corporations and nonprofit organizations As a result the importance of missions to distinguish among organizations and to guide the development and execution of implementing strategies has become a nearly universally endorsed but unenthusiastically practiced element in organizational planning activities This information laden new book by John Graham and Wendy Havlick invites managers and academic researchers to undertake the study of missions with greater expectations that much can be learned about the organizations their leaders and their strategies through a comprehensive assessment of their written statements of values and priorities
