By Words Alone The Holocaust In Literature:

By Words Alone; the Holocaust in Literature Sidra DeKoven Ezrahi, Perspectives on Contemporary Literature David Hersherberg, 2014-07-15 In all parts of the world and in every age many of the greatest works of literature have been shaped or inspired by the swirl of historical events The wars holocausts and mushroom clouds of our own era haunt the pages of many twentieth century writers events of the past even the remote past also inspire many authors though their work is contemporary in every way And if we agree with the poet Czeslaw Milosz that historicity may reveal itself in a detail of architecture in the shaping of a landscape we come to recognize that our understanding of a given poem or novel can often be deepened by a reading from this point of view The essayists in Literature and the Historical Process explore the ways in which history and literature are intertwined in the works of a number of twentieth century writers These probing critical readings from the historical point of view not only enlighten us about the works under consideration but especially when taken together enrich our understanding of the literary impulse itself In Nature History and Art in Elizabeth Bishop's Brazil January 1 1502 for example Barbara Page shows how Bishop used and rearranged knowledge derived from her study of Brazil's history Page's somewhat feminist reading may surprise those who find Bishop's poetic persona hard to identify Among the other authors considered are Jorge Luis Borges Michel de Ghelderode Elizabeth Bowen Rose Macauley Anthony Burgess Hugo von Hofmannsthal Cesare Pavese and Czeslaw Milosz Encyclopedia of Modern Jewish Culture Glenda Abramson, 2004-03 The Companion to Jewish Culture From the Eighteenth Century to the Present was first published in 1989 It is a single volume encyclopedia containing biographical and topic entries ranging from 200 to 1000 word each

Reader's Guide to Judaism Michael Terry, 2013-12-02 The Reader's Guide to Judaism is a survey of English language translations of the most important primary texts in the Jewish tradition The field is assessed in some 470 essays discussing individuals Martin Buber Gluckel of Hameln literature Genesis Ladino Literature thought and beliefs Holiness Bioethics practice Dietary Laws Passover history Venice Baghdadi Jews of India and arts and material culture Synagogue Architecture Costume The emphasis is on Judaism rather than on Jewish studies more broadly Children's Literature as Communication Roger D. Sell, 2002-01-01 In this book members of the ChiLPA Project explore the children's literature of several different cultures ranging from ancient India nineteenth century Russia and the Soviet Union to twentieth century Britain America Australia Sweden and Finland The research covers not only the form and content of books for children but also their potential social functions especially within education These two perspectives are brought together within a theory of children's literature as one among other forms of communication an approach that sees the role of literary scholars critics and teachers as one of mediation Part I deals with the way children's writers and picturebook makers draw on a culture's available resources of orality literacy intertextuality and image Part II examines their negotiation of major issues such as the child adult distinction gender politics and the Holocaust Part III discusses children's books as used within language
