This book showcases the contribution Australian contemporary glass artist David Wright has made to Australian art and international glassmaking. From 1970 until 2014 David Wright produced hundreds of high quality art glass windows for Australian public private and sacred spaces including significant national churches chapels and synagogues yet little scholarly research on the artist and his place in Australian art history exists. Including the first catalogue raisonné ever produced on the artist combined with a close examination of his opus his influences manufacturing methods and personal history this book demonstrates for the first time the extraordinary contribution David Wright made to Australian art and contemporary glassmaking. The Crafts Movement in Australia Grace Cochrane, 1992-01. Written by early art coordinator Diana Wood Conroy with oral testimony from senior Tiwi artist Bede Tungutalum who established Tiwi Design in 1969 with fellow designer Giovanni Tipungwuti the book traces the beginnings of the centre and its subsequent place in the Tiwi community and Australian Indigenous culture more broadly. Bringing together many voices and images especially those of little known older artists of Paru and Wurrumiyanga formerly Nguui on the Tiwi Islands and from the Indigenous literature Tiwi Textiles features profiles of Tiwi artists accounts of the development of new design processes insights into Tiwi culture and language and personal reflections on the significance of Tiwi Design which is still proudly operating today. Tiwi Textiles is a unique historical document a formidable vindication of the accomplishments of great Indigenous artists and an account of a missing chapter in world art history. The book is a wonderful chronicle of a vital and fertile period for Tiwi practice in the emergence of contemporary Indigenous art. But it is also a charter for the future.
