The Craft of Governing R.A.W. Rhodes,2020-08-02 Bargaining and puzzling power and thought dealing and agonising compromise and commitment These are two sides of political practitioners whether politician public servant or campaigner Understand the interplay and we can just sometimes make sense of the real world we seek to interpret Patrick Weller s observation comes from half a century of contemplating politics in action The question of how government works lies at the heart of political science and it has also been the career focus of this pioneer in the field The Craft of Governing offers a tribute to the contribution of Patrick Weller to Australian political science with chapters from leading political commentators including Michelle Grattan Peter Shergold Bob Jackson and James Walter Contributors consider the role of the prime minister approaches to studying executive government the continuing significance of senior public servants and the nature of leadership in public bureaucracies They also reflect on how insights from the study of domestic public policy can be applied to international organisations challenges faced by Westminster democracies and approaches to political biography The Craft of Governing is an invaluable resource for readers interested in approaches to studying politics and the development of political science as a discipline The Art and Craft of Policy Analysis Aaron Wildavsky, 1980-07-10 The Craft of Teaching in Public Affairs William Hatcher, Beth M. Rauhaus, Bruce D. McDonald III, 2024-10-25 This book explores the art and science of teaching in public affairs programs by asking top instructors to discuss their tools and tips for the trade Public affairs is a discipline that builds scholarly knowledge but also trains and educates public administrators to improve their careers organizations and communities Instructors in public affairs programs at the university level therefore play a vital role in safeguarding the governing capacity of public bureaucracies and nonprofits and it is crucial that their teaching is effective Containing chapters written by award winning teachers grounded in first hand experience and supplemented with education research this book offers guidance to new and veteran instructors alike on what works and doesn't in public affairs classrooms Topics covered include teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels teaching nontraditional students promoting inclusivity in the classroom managing classrooms teaching effectively online and defining student success in the classroom among other themes This book will be of keen interest to instructors currently teaching courses on public administration public policy and nonprofit management as well as PhD students looking to enhance their teaching skills Public Administration Royal Institute of Public Administration, 1929 The Journal of Public Administration, 1923 The Craft Sinister George Abel Schreiner, 1920 The English Craft Gilds and the Government Stella Kramer, 1905 Policy Analysis in Belgium Brans, Marleen, Aubin, David, 2018-03-01 This unique book presents the first systematic overview of policy analysis activities in Belgium Contributors from both sides of the Dutch French language border from research institutes in Flanders Brussels and Wallonia use original empirical data through surveys and interviews with key players both within and outside government to provide a comprehensive study of policy analysis in a multi level polity By the very nature of the Belgian experience the volume is comparative drawing conclusions on divergence and convergence of policy analysis making it an important resource for both national and international scholars Journal of Public Administration, 1928 Includes section Reviews The Public Administration Workbook Dennis Dresang, 2016-08-05 Public administration is a craft that demands real world application of concepts and theories often learned in a classroom Yet many students find it difficult to make the leap from theory to practice completely unaided The Public Administration Workbook 8e is specifically designed with the theoretically grounded practice minded student in mind It reviews scholarship in political science law industrial psychology and the sociology of organizations and then allows students to see how these intellectual fields inform the analytical and managerial tasks that comprise public administration Where standard public administration textbooks examine the nature of public agencies and explain how bureaucracies relate to other institutions this workbook promotes a more effective way of learning by doing and more directly prepares those who will pursue careers in public agencies Each chapter begins with a discussion of relevant concepts and scholarship before moving into a hands on exercise analyzing core analytical and management challenges This edition includes an all new exercise on contract negotiation many international examples interwoven throughout the book and a fully updated HRM section to reflect alternative ranking and compensation systems Each chapter is further supported by a detailed Instructor s Manual written by the author to guide instructors on solutions explanations and ideas for using or modifying the exercises to fit a variety of course needs as well as downloadable datasets and exercises providing students with a unique opportunity to apply and test classroom concepts outside of the job
