Reconceiving Nature PATRICIA MURPHY,2019-03-28 Surprisingly glimmerings of ecofeminist theory that would emerge a century later can be detected in women s poetry of the late Victorian period In Reconceiving Nature Patricia Murphy examines the work of six ecofeminist poets Augusta Webster Mathilde Blind Michael Field Alice Meynell Constance Naden and L S Bevington who contested the exploitation of the natural world Challenging prevalent assumptions that nature is inferior rightly subordinated and deservedly manipulated these poets instead reconstructed nature

Voice as Process Lizbeth Bryant,2005 Voice as Process looks at how student writers use the voices of home and community to develop an academic voice Through a thorough textual analysis of student portfolios copious interviews and ethnographic research Lizbeth Bryant identifies the activities that writers perform as they manipulate the voices they bring to class and those they encounter there into a web of constructed voices that can be adjusted to meet the needs of any writing situation

Already Ready Katie Wood Ray,Matt Glover,2008 From the very first chapter of this informative and inspiring book a clear picture emerges of how even three and four year olds capacities for serious authorship can and should be supported Lillian G Katz Coauthor of Young Investigators The Project Approach in the Early Years By the time they reach preschool or kindergarten young children are already writers They don t have much experience but they re filled with stories to tell and ideas to express they want to show the world what they know and see All they need is a nurturing teacher like you to recognize the writer at work within them All you need to help them is Already Ready Taking an exciting new approach to working with our youngest students Already Ready shows you how by respecting children as writers engaged in bookmaking you can gently nudge them toward a lifetime of joyful writing Katie Wood Ray and Matt Glover guide you through fundamental concepts of early writing Providing numerous helpful examples of early writing complete with transcriptions they demonstrate how to make sense of children's writing and interpret how they represent sounds ideas and images see important developmental signs in writers that you can use to help them grow further recognize the thinking young children engage in and discover that it's the same thinking more experienced writers use to craft purposeful thoughtful pieces Then Ray and Glover show you how little ones can develop powerful understandings about texts and their characteristics the writing process what it means to be a writer You'll learn how to support your writers' quest to make meaning as they grow their abilities and refine their thinking about writing through teaching strategies such as reading aloud working side by side with writers sharing children's writing Writing is just one part of a busy early childhood classroom but even in little doses a nurturing approach can work wonders and help children connect the natural writer inside them to a life of expressing themselves on paper Find that approach share it with your students and you'll discover that you don't have to get students ready to write they're Already Ready Instructor, 2005 Reading Horizons, 2010 English Journal, 2003

Teaching the Neglected "R" Thomas Newkirk, 2007 A collection of essays in which leading scholars explore the new realities of writing instruction in the twenty-first century discussing how new advances in technology have influenced the field and describing new strategies for connecting with learners at all levels Adolescent Literacy G.
