Crazy All The Time On The Psyche Ward Of Bellevue Hospital:

Crazy all the time Frederick L. Covan, 1995 Crazy All the Time Frederick L. Covan, Carol Kahn, 1994 Crazy All the Time is the story of psychotherapy in the real world Dr Frederick L Covan chief psychologist at Bellevue Hospital offers a vivid portrait compassionate insightful and humorous of life on the inside of the combat zone that is the psych ward In this colorful and irresistibly readable book he tracks the progress of a group of psychology interns who confront an array of patients from paranoid schizophrenics to self mutilators and suicidal adolescents These are the accounts of everyday trials by fire where cases unfold with wildly unpredictable turns where each intern regularly faces the chasm that separates the world of academic theory from the messy lives of actual patients With an acute wit and penetrating sense of human nature Dr Covan guides the progress of these interns as they wrestle with fascinating cases whether it is Brenda a middle aged woman who believes she has had sexual relations with the last five presidents of the United States and challenges her therapist's notions about the bridges we all build between public and private lives or Sid who swallows glass and razor blades and is either a petty criminal or a desperate young man calling for help or Matthew who performs the seemingly inexplicable act of cutting off his own penis In this moving and engaging story of patients and the men and women passionately committed to helping them we see the full range of what psychotherapy can and cannot accomplish Along the way the special place called Bellevue comes alive and so does the imprecise art of tending to the human mind BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
