Crazy Streets:

Cuba Open from the Inside Chris Messner, 2011-07-21 Cuba occupies a place of undisputed fascination in the American psyche. Despite its proximity to America, this island nation remains a mystery to most Americans. Few Americans have traveled to Havana, and still fewer have traveled deeper into this isolated country. Chris Messner, a photographer, is one of the few Americans who have been able to travel extensively throughout this island. In his book Cuba Open from the Inside, Messner documents the character of Cuba's people, its rich history, and the vast culture of the country. As Cuba's leaders age and the possibility of travel to Cuba increases, this book acts as an exceptional resource for would-be travelers. Through multiple journeys, Messner has covered more than four thousand miles on the back roads of the island nation. Through his words and pictures, he provides a snapshot of this nation and documents the Cuba of today, the 1950s time capsule country located ninety miles from the US coast.

Not Afraid to Tell Who I Was Because I Know Who I Am Gail Davis, 2011-06-04 In the pages of this book, you will read about a little girl who was raped at eight by her biological dad, hurt, rejected, and demoralized. Although in her mind she had a legitimate reason to end her life, but somewhere deep inside her was a never-give-up spirit, so she continued to fight. She sold her body, not realizing she had already been bought with the blood of Jesus. You will read how the issue of her life tried to stifle her, yet in still, she never gave up. Moreover, you will read how even in the streets, she did not fit in, yet she did fit into God's perfect plan and into the palm of His mighty unchanging hand. She discovered in writing this book, a person can either learn and grow from the pain or give in to it and lay down and die; she chooses life. Today, Gail is very grateful to God for saving her; for this time, she is not bitter but lives with a loving, forgiving, and humbled heart.

Architecture, 1929 The professional architectural monthly varies. No Way Back Home Miki Hruska, 2020-04-22 In 1938, when faced with a decision to work at a shoe company in India or stay in Czechoslovakia and wait for another war, Miki Hruska's newly married parents opted to move, thinking they would return home in a few years. But they would not be able to return home for another four decades; instead, home became Calcutta, where they raised their family and established a business during a parade of turbulent social and political events. The ill-planned departure of the British from India and their bungled attempts at Partition engendered riots and killings that brought bloodshed to the family's front door. And when the Communists took over the government of West Bengal, they brought labour disruptions that made it next to impossible to operate the family business. This riveting family memoir is set during the cataclysmic events of WWII and its aftermath, giving a harrowing yet heartwarming portrait of life for a migrant Czech family and showing how perseverance and love can sustain people through the darkest of times.

Narratives in Motion Luís Trindade, 2016-06-01 Interwar Portugal was in many ways a microcosm of Europe's encounter with modernity, reshaped by industrialization, urban growth, and the antagonism between liberalism and authoritarianism. It also witnessed new forms of media and mass culture that transformed daily life. This fascinating study of newspapers in 1920s Portugal explores how the new modernist reportage embodied the spirit of the era while mediating some of its most spectacular episodes from political upheavals to lurid crimes of passion In the process Lu s Trindade illuminates the twofold nature of that journalism both historical account and material object it epitomized a distinctly modern entanglement of narrative and event
