Crazy Melon and Chinese Apple Frances Chung, 2000-12-18 Two previously unpublished collections by an important Chinese American poet depict daily life inside New York's Chinatown and across the Chinese diaspora during the 1960s and 70s Frances Chung's poetry stands alone as the most perceptive aesthetically accomplished and compassionate depiction of a supposedly impenetrable community during the late 1960s and 70s Written For the Chinatown People and imprinted with Chung's own ink seal Crazy Melon is collects brief poems and prose vignettes set in New York's Chinatown and Lower East Side Chung incorporates Spanish and Chinese into her English in deft evocations of these neighborhoods streets fantasies commerce and toil The title of her second collection Chinese Apple translates the Chinese word for pomegranate there she offers small crimson bites of new themes and cityscapes delightfully understated eroticism tributes to other poets impressions of other Chinese diasporic communities during her travels in Central America and Asia Its new formal experiments show that Chung's poetic prowess continued to deepen before her early death Publication of these two works will finally allow Chung's growing circle of admirers to experience the full range of her skills and sensibility and will draw many others into that circle Her poems are an inimitable synthesis of American urban vernacular and imagery various East Asian and Spanish language poetics and a concern for ethnic and feminist cultural and political survival in writing that was so vital to American poets around the time that Chung first began to compose Her always fresh perspective on the worlds around her smoothly shifts through multiple lenses making wonderful use of her power to dream in four languages

Poetry After Barbarism Jennifer Scappettone, 2025-10-14 Against a backdrop of xenophobic and ethnonationalist fantasies of linguistic purity Poetry After Barbarism uncovers a stateless polyglot poetry of resistance the poetry of motherless tongues Departing from the national and global paradigms that dominate literary history Jennifer Scappettone traces the aesthetic and geopolitical resonance of xenoglossic poetics poetry composed in the space of contestation between national languages concretizing dreams of mending the ruptures traced to the story of Babel As global migration aerial bombardment and the wireless telegraph shrank distances with brute force during the twentieth century visions of transcultural communication emerged in the hopes of bridging linguistic difference At the same time evolving Fascist ideologies denied the reality of cultural admixture and the humanity of the stranger Authors who write xenoglossic verse occupy languages without a perceived birthright or sanctioned education they compose in ecstatic orphan tongues that rebuff nationalist ideologies on the one hand and globalization on the other uprooting notions of belonging ensconced in nativist metaphors of milk blood and soil while rendering the reactionary category of the barbarian obsolete Raised within or in the wake of fascism these poets practice strategic forms of literary and linguistic barbarism proposing modes of collectivity that exceed geopolitical definitions Studying experiments between languages by immigrant refugee and otherwise stateless authors from Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven to Emilio Villa Amelia Rosselli Etel Adnan LaTasha N Nevada Diggs Chika Sagawa and Sawako Nakayasu this book explores how poetry can both represent and jumpstart metamorphosis of the shape and sound of citizenship modeling paths toward alternative republics in which poetry might assume a central agency

Asian Diaspora Poetry in North America Benzi Zhang, 2007-12-12 Presenting a new way of reading that helps us discern some previously unnoticed or unnoticeable features of Asian diaspora poetry this volume highlights how poetry plays a significant role in mediating and defining cross cultural and transnational positions Asian diaspora poetry in North America is a rich body of poetic works that not only provide valuable material for us to understand the lives and experiences of Asian diasporas but also present us with an opportunity to examine some of the most important issues in current literary and cultural studies As a mode of writing across cultural and national borders these poetic works challenge us to reconsider the assumptions and meanings of identity nation home and place in a broad cross cultural context In recent postcolonial studies diaspora has been conceived not only as a process of migration in which people crossed and traversed the borders of different countries but also as a double relationship between different cultural origins With all its complexity and ambiguity associated with the experience of multi cultural mediation diaspora as both a process and a relationship suggests an act of constant repositioning in confluent streams that accommodate to multiple cultural traditions By examining how Asian diaspora poets maintain and represent their cultural differences in North America Zhang is able to seek new perspectives for understanding and analyzing the intrinsic values of Asian cultures that survive and develop persistently in North American societies
