Creating Literature Out Of Life The Making Of Four Masterpieces:

Creating Literature Out of Life Doris Alexander, 2010-11 An exploration of the creative process in four classic works Death in Venice Treasure Island The Rubiy t of Mar Khayy m and War and Peace Creating Literature Out of Life examines four very dissimilar masterpieces and their authors in search of evidence that will answer some of the many questions in the great mystery of creativity Crossing boundaries of period nation and genre the study looks into the why and how of the creation of Thomas Mann s Death in Venice Robert Louis Stevenson s Treasure Island Edward FitzGerald s The Rubiy t of Mar Khayy m and Lev Tolstoy s War and Peace Doris Alexander finds that each of these works was compelled by an urgent life problem of its author some of them partly conscious others completely unconscious which worked in harmony and counterpoint with the author s conscious theme to shape his work She traces an interconnected nexus of memories personal experiences ideas readings that came alive in response to the author s problem and served as a reservoir out of which his characters his images his story line and the emotional tone of his work emerged Creating Literature Out of Life tells the exciting story of how Mann Stevenson FitzGerald and Tolstoy fought out their major life battles in their works

Disenchanted Modernity in Robert Kroetsch's The Studhorse Man Francis Zichy, 2010 This book undertakes a detailed reading of Robert Kroetsch s The Studhorse Man examining this Canadian novel in its transnational historical and socio cultural context Key subject headings are biology and culture sex and gender eugenics and contraception writing and reading The overarching theme is disenchanted modernity in the twentieth century the systematic displacement of the divine and natural order by a humanly ordained social regime and by forms of social engineering that brought to bear the full force of modern science invasively to alter the most fundamental conditions of human life The more immediate literary frames of reference are Greek mythology early Christian debates on the body and marriage and the lore of the North American Aboriginal trickster as these are deployed and alluded to in Kroetsch s novel In establishing the sources and contexts of The Studhorse Man this study examines Robert Kroetsch s early drafts of the novel and his many notes taken and clippings assembled during its composition An effort has been made to appeal to a wide range of general and academic readers alike by avoiding specialized jargon and adopting a cross disciplinary approach This book will be of interest to scholars of literature and literary theory and of use in courses on literature and the novel on masculinity and gender studies and on cultural history in the twentieth century Eugene O'Neill's Last Plays Doris Alexander, 2005 This study draws on research concerning the lives of Eugene O'Neill his family and his circle It corrects and expands the biographical record on him and distinguishes the man and his life from the creations that were inspired by and drew on that life Included are his attempted suicide his tuberculosis and his relationship with his parents Tolstoy's Family Prototypes in "War and Peace" Brett Cooke, 2020-11-24 What were the consequences of Tolstoy s unusual reliance on members of his family as source material for War and Peace Did affection for close relatives influence depictions of these real prototypes in his fictional characters Tolstoy used these models to consider his origins to ponder alternative family histories and to critique himself Comparison of the novel and its fascinating drafts with the writer's family history reveals increasing preferential treatment of those with greater relatedness to him kin altruism i.e. nepotism This pattern helps explain many of Tolstoy's choices amongst plot variants he considered as well as some of the curious devices he utilizes to get readers to share his biases such as coincidences notions of fate and aversion to incest

Silent Love Gerard Vries, 2019-08-28 The Real Life of Sebastian Knight is one of Vladimir Nabokov's most autobiographical novels and it has often been observed that Sebastian's passionate affair with the femme fatale Nina Rechnoy is a dramatized extension of Nabokov's infatuation with Irina Guadanini In this book it is shown that the novel also conceals another secluded love affair Sebastian had with a man which reflects the main episode in the life of Nabokov's brother Sergey By pursuing many biographical and literary references and allusions and by disregarding the deceptive guiding by the narrator Sebastian's half brother this moving story about Sebastian's silent love becomes brightly visible

Thomas Mann's Death in Venice Ellis Shookman, 2003 Study of the critical reception of one of the most famous and widely read works of modern literature Thomas Mann's 1912 novella Death in Venice is one of the most famous and widely read texts in all of modern literature raising such issues as beauty and decadence eros and irony and aesthetics and morality The amount and variety of criticism on the work is enormous and ranges from psychoanalytic criticism and readings inspired by Mann's own homosexuality to inquiries into the place of the novella in Mann's oeuvre its structure and style and its symbolism and politics Critics have also drawn connections between the novella and works of Plato Euripides Goethe Schopenhauer Platen Wagner Nietzsche Gide and Conrad Ellis Shookman surveys the reception of Death in Venice analyzing several hundred books articles and other reactions to the novella proceeding in a chronological manner that allows a historical perspective Critics cited include Heinrich Mann Hermann Broch D.H. Lawrence Karl Kraus Kenneth Burke Georg Lukács Wolfgang Koeppen Mario Vargas Llosa and Thomas Mann himself Particular attention is paid to Luchino Visconti's film Benjamin Britten's opera and to other more recent creative adaptations both in Germany and throughout the world Ellis Shookman is associate professor of German at Dartmouth College

Dialogue and Deviance R. Sturges, 2005-03-01 This book traces the historical relationship between male-male erotic desire and the genre of literary or philosophical dialogue It describes three literary philosophical traditions each of which originates in a different Platonic dialogue whose subsequent influence can be traced first through the Roman and medieval periods second through the Renaissance and Enlightenment periods and finally through the modern and postmodern periods Sturges demonstrates that various forms of erotic deviance have been differently valued in these different periods and cultures and that dialogue has consistently proven to be the genre of choice for expressing these changing values This study provides a valuable historical perspective on current debates over the place of homosexuality in modern Western culture
