Paranjape, 2001 Over the last twenty years or so it seems as if the Indian diaspora has suddenly come of age Shedding its minority status it has demonstrated its inclination for becoming a majority not in the sense of numerical superiority but of growing up maturing attaining self apprehension and self expression It can now look at itself the host country and the homeland with a critical humor that has not necessarily dulled its passion or lessened the intensity of its engagement Moreover the Indian diaspora

has become an important economic force whose reputed net worth exceeds hundreds of billions of dollars It is at once more mobile and cohesive than ever before what with faster means of travel and communication Not only has the old diaspora made inroads into the new but the access of all the scattered peoples of Indian origin to India the motherland has also increased dramatically Now it actually seems as if this diaspora has an unprecedented ascendancy and leverage both in the host country and the homeland Perhaps its days of impossible mourning to use Vijay Mishra s phrase might at last be at an end
