Creating An Effective Parish Pastoral Council:

Creating an Effective Parish Pastoral Council Robert G. Howes, 1991-01-01 Making Parish Councils Pastoral Mark F. Fischer, 2010 The author's website www.PastoralCouncils.com offers the latest supplemental and practical resources to complement this book Book Jacket Four Ways to Build More Effective Parish Councils Mark F. Fischer, Mary Margaret Raley, 2002 This practical collection of essays brings readers up to date on the developments in pastoral councils as well as presents four principles that make pastoral councils even more effective A must have for pastors and parish council members

Best Practices of Catholic Pastoral and Finance Councils Charles Zech, Mary Gautier, Robert Miller, Mary Bendyna, 2010-04-13 Every Catholic parish has a pastoral council and a finance council but how many fulfill the mission they were set up to serve These councils are among the most important but least understood structures in the Catholic Church Mandated to exist their roles have become increasingly critical as parishes both large and small are stretching personnel and financial resources further and further each year Add in the need for internal financial controls and human resource management coupled with fewer and fewer parish priests and the importance of these councils goes way beyond simply filling seats with warm bodied volunteers The function of these councils is to provide consultation to the pastor and to promote greater participation of the entire parish in the life and mission of the Church But in reality these terms are vague and leave too much room for individual interpretation In an unprecedented research effort author Charles Zech explores the very function of these councils in an effort to lay the groundwork for best practices at every parish It systematically fills the void as both Church leaders and laity strive to better understand the structure and processes needed to improve their effectiveness Zech's common sense straightforward writing style unpacks the extensive data to cover critical issues such as Parish Leadership Education Formation Programs Communication with Parish and Parish Staff Council Guideline Manuals Internal Controls Long Term Planning Prayer and Faith Sharing A must read for every pastor staff member or committee volunteer Best Practices of Catholic Pastoral and Finance Councils gives the guidance support and how to that every parish needs making it helpful for diocesan staff as well Use it to stay on track get back on track or simply realize a track exists for these highly critical leadership councils Four Ways to Build More Effective Parish Councils, 2002 Developing a Vibrant Parish Pastoral Council Arthur X. Deegan, 1995 this book offers theological rationale and practical procedures for organizing pastoral councils on a grassroots level It brings together some of the best people in the field to reflect on the purpose potential problems and the exciting promise of collegial parish leadership from back cover Revisioning the Parish Pastoral Council Mary Ann Gubish, Susan Jenny, Arlene McGannon, 2001 A practical guidebook for all persons involved in developing pastoral councils on a parish level The Cumulative Book Index, 1991 A world list of books in the English language Good News Parish Leadership Michael L. Papesh, 2008 For many Catholics today the leaders described above don't exist For just as many parish leadership does not equal good news But Father Michael Papesh believes it certainly CAN and here he offers guidelines tools and ideas for making it happen By sharing pastoral leadership and structuring power distribution he says a parish can enjoy be mirror proclaim and bring to the world the transforming goodness of God And thus he offers a whole system model for pastoral leadership that is theologically grounded in the hospitality of God as revealed through the ministry of Jesus Today's Parish ,1990 Whitaker's Book List ,1991 Marriage in the Christian and Igbo Traditional Context Emmanuel Okonkwo,2003 Traditional marriage and Christian marriage rites presently exist as two distinct ceremonies in some parts of Africa Is there no way of bringing the two together to avoid any form of duplication or multiplication of rite More so because the Church has always implicitly recognised matrimonial institution as a cultural product The answer to the above question is located in the whole issue of inculturation A process that successfully flourished in the Western civilisation and consequently influenced the teaching of the Church on marriage The answer to our question seeks to establish a marriage rite where couples will genuinely experience the happy marriage between culture and Church A marriage rite that will fulfil both the traditional and Christian demands From the Pioneers to the Seventies Edgar J. Boland,1976 Roman Catholicism After Vatican II Robert A. Burns,2001 The second Vatican Council which concluded in December 1965 inaugurated a reformation process in the Catholic Church that continues to this day Grounding his discussion in the documents that came out of Vatican II Robert Burns addresses four critical questions that face the Church largely as an outcome of this first truly global Church council First Burns presents an overview of the evolving Roman Catholic understanding of Jesus Christ He follows with an analysis of authority within the Church a matter of some contention in today s democratic societies and a discussion of Catholicism as a global church incorporating people and practices from many cultures Finally Burns examines the validity of other religions in relation to the Christian claim that salvation through Jesus is unique and final A readable introduction for all Catholics interested in learning more about their church the book includes features such as chapter summaries and study questions that also make it an ideal textbook for undergraduates or parish study The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2008 Parish Pastoral Councils in the Archdiocese of Manila Armando F. De Jesus,1998 A Democratic Catholic Church Eugene C. Bianchi,Rosemary Radford Ruether,1992 The Second Vatican Council proclaimed that the church is the People of God In this volume thirteen scholars and theologians including Hans Kung Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza Jay Dolan Philip Berryman Charles Curran as well as Rosemary Ruether and Eugene Bianchi propose how to implement this idea The contributors argue for a more democratic and participatory church They maintain that the current structure of the church derives not from the mandate of Jesus Christ but from the monarchies within which it existed in times past and that it is long overdue for change Further the editors argue that the issue of a democratic Catholic Church is not merely an academic debate Rather it is a crucial hinge for opening the door to further reforms in the spirit of Vatican II The quarter century since the council has been a long lesson in how needed change in the church can be derailed for lack of participational democratic structures What is at stake is the redemptive power and witness of the church The time for reform is at hand and it will only be accomplished by all the people of the church Origins ,2007 St. Dominic's Catholic Church Yaba ,2004 Changing Patterns of Authority and Leadership Paul Gundani,2001 Changes have taken place in the Roman Catholic Church in Zimbabwe since the Second Vatican Council whose teachings transformed parish organisation education justice and peace The author a lecturer at the University of Zimbabwe in Christian History and Thought and Christianity in Africa and general secretary of the Association of Theological Institutions in Southern and Central Africa explores the dynamics behind the changes The Second Vatican Council s teachings centred on the need to form episcopal councils priests associations diocesan and parish councils This was intended to promote popular involvement in the Church and to foster collaboration between the clergy and the laity in matters of faith The programmes undertaken by the Church since 1965 are examined and their successes and failures examined
