Creating Relevant Rituals Chris Harris, 1992 Losing the Sacred Ritual and Liturgy David Torevell, 2004-11-11 This book argues that the liturgical reforms initiated by the second Vatican Council may have seriously undermined contemporary Roman Catholic worship Drawing on important work by Durkheim Bauman Foucault Turner Duffy Flanagan and Pickstock David Torevell focuses on the most crucial element of Catholic worship the experience of the sacred and examines how it has been eroded since pre modern times largely due to the marginalisation of ritual expression and its consequences A devastating critique of the loss of the sacred in worship this striking interdisciplinary study is a call for revitalisation of Roman Catholic liturgy through a reform of the reform and the reclamation of the importance of the body in ritual expression

Rituals and Ritual Theory in Ancient Israel Ithamar Gruenwald, 2003-01-20 This book in many ways the first of its kind addresses the issue of rituals and their embedded ritual theory in the religion of ancient Israel The leading idea of the book is that rituals are an autonomous form of expression of the human mind The human mind expresses itself in rituals as it does in language the arts and mathematics Rituals are not performative translations of symbols and ideas and in religion of any kind of theology Theology does not explain how rituals are done and how they accomplish what they claim to do The book begins with a general discussion of what rituals are and argues that the ritual theory of each ritual is not in any general theory of ritual but embedded in the ritual act itself Every ritual is structured in such a way that its details create the behavioural logic that makes ritual work The difference is explored between the early and institutionalised phases of the religion of ancient Israel Here the role of the economic ethos is the focus of the discussion The book explores the links between myth and rituals arguing that the connectedness with ritual endows a story with a myth essence Detailed discussions of various rituals exemplify the major theoretical discourse The book is of interest to scholars in the areas of Halakhah law and ritual religious studies and the anthropology of religion Making Place through Ritual Lea

Traditional Ritual as Christian Worship Burrows, William R., Shaw, R.
