Pneumatology and the Christian-Buddhist Dialogue Amos Yong, 2012-07-26 Recent thinking in Christian theology of religions has taken a pneumatological turn which asks how the doctrine of the Holy Spirit can contribute to the interreligious dialogue and to the emerging discourse of comparative theology Pneumatology and the Christian Buddhist Dialogue Does the Spirit Blow through the Middle Way tests the viability of this approach as applied to the Christian Buddhist dialogue Various Christian and Buddhist traditions are compared and contrasted within a pneumatological framework Is the Holy Spirit to be found along the Buddha's middle way Some Christians say yes while others demur The thesis of this volume is that such a pneumatological perspective opens up possibilities for the deepening and transformation of Christian theology in the religiously plural world of the twenty first century

A World of Difference (Reasons to Believe) Kenneth Richard Samples, 2007-09-01 Recent Barna research indicates that less than one in ten evangelical Christians hold a biblical worldview A World of Difference seeks to change this disturbing fact by educating readers on how the Christian perspective is uniquely reasonable verifiable and liveable Author Kenneth Richard Samples faced a profound test of his own belief system during a personal life and death crisis In A World of Difference he uses nine distinct tests to compare the Christian worldview with current religious and philosophical competitors including Islam postmodernism naturalism and pantheistic monism Samples tackles tough issues through this in depth study of Christianity's history creed and philosophical basis An excellent resource for readers who want their view of life and the world to make sense

The Wonderful Decree Travis James Campbell, 2020-01-03 Unconditionally loving Sovereign over all How can God be sovereign over all things and loving towards all people while His creatures possess real freedom and responsibility for their choices Theologians have wrestled with this question for centuries But have our attempted solutions made the problem worse In Wonderful Decree Travis James Campbell suggests we cannot solve the problem by sacrificing either divine sovereignty and goodness on one hand or human responsibility on the other While considering Arminian and Molinist alternatives he concludes that the traditional Augustinian and Calvinist approach best allows these truths to remain in a healthy and biblically faithful tension Inspired by the example of Spurgeon who preferred biblical mystery over human solutions Campbell encourages readers to trust even delight in the harmony of God's love for all and sovereignty over all

Creation and the Abrahamic Faiths Neil Spurway, 2008 Creation How we are here Not just us of course but bluetits and Hereford cattle and cabbages and E coli and deserts and mountains and suns and nebulae in fact all that is So not only oeWhy are we here but oeWhy is there a here TM for us to inhabit That is this book TM s theme Inevitably it doesn TM t answer the question in a mechanistic sense A telescope cannot look at itself and neither can an inhabitant of the Universe say how it came to be But that does not stop those questions haunting us So where shall we turn To cosmology The concept of an initial event a oeBig Bang is now almost universally accepted But what caused that Most would feel that this is not a question science can answer The first two contributors to this book are professional cosmologists yet cosmology is only a background for this book not its core theme That theme is the conviction that the Universe owes its existence to a divine Creator and the specific formulations of this conviction in the three great monotheistic religions the oeAbrahamic faiths The scriptures of all three faiths include the creation accounts in the first two chapters of Genesis Later developments moved the expressions of the three faiths considerably apart but the social and political conditions of the 21st C world make it imperative that every effort should be put into a recovery of understanding between their practitioners The purpose of this book is to contribute to that understanding Of thirteen chapters two are by Jewish authors and three by Moslems several of the Christian authors also are deeply versed in the other traditions Together the chapters show that the attitudes of the three faiths to Creation have far more in common than otherwise In particular they are noticeably and encouragingly coming together in their endorsements of 21st C concerns for the environment The book derives from a conference of the Science and Religion Forum in Sept 2006 but all chapters have been rewritten for publication and carefully edited with linking commentaries
