Creation Through Wisdom Theology And The New Biology:

The Ethics of Nature Celia Deane-Drummond, 2008-04-15 This accessible and timely book uses a Christian perspective to explore ethical debates about nature A detailed exploration of humanity's treatment of the natural world from a Christian perspective Covers a range of ethical debates including current controversies about the environment animal rights biotechnology consciousness and cloning Sets the immediate issues in the context of underlying theological and philosophical assumptions Complex scientific issues are explained in clear student friendly language The author develops her own distinctive ethical approach centred on the practice of wisdom Discusses key figures in the field including Peter Singer Aldo Leopold Tom Regan Andrew Linzey James Lovelock Anne Primavesi Rosemary Radford Ruether and Michael Northcott The author has held academic posts in both theology and plant science

Creation Through Wisdom Celia Deane-Drummond, 2000 This text offers a new theology of nature based on wisdom chronology It proposes a theology of creation that is in tune with recent developments in biological science including genetics and ecology

The Cambridge Companion to Feminist Theology Susan Frank Parsons, 2002-07-04 Feminist theology is a significant movement within contemporary theology The aim of this Companion is to give an outline of feminist theology through an analysis of its overall shape and its major themes so that both its place in and its contributions to the present changing theological landscape may be discerned The two sections of the volume are designed to provide a comprehensive and critical introduction to feminist theology which is authoritative and up to date Written by some of the main figures in feminist theology as well as by younger scholars who are considering their inheritance it offers fresh insights into the nature of feminist theological work The book as a whole is intended to present a challenge for future scholarship since it critically engages with the assumptions of feminist theology and seeks to open ways for women after feminism to enter into the vocation of theology

Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa

The Bible in the Contemporary World Richard Bauckham, 2015 A crucial responsibility for Christian interpreters of Scripture says Richard Bauckham is to understand our contemporary context and to explore the Bible's relevance to it in ways that reflect serious critical engagement with that context In this book Bauckham models how this task can be carried out Bauckham calls for our reading of Scripture to lead us to greater engagement with critical issues in today's world including globalization environmental degradation and widespread poverty He works to bring biblical texts to bear on these contemporary realities through the Bible's metanarrative of God and the world according to which God's purpose takes effect in the blessing and salvation and fulfillment of the world as his cherished creation

Systematic Theology Francis Schussler

Fiorenza, John P. Galvin, 2011-05-01 Unique among contemporary resources the landmark Systematic Theology and its distinguished contributors present the major areas or loci of Roman Catholic theology in light of contemporary developments especially the sea change since Vatican II thought the best new historical studies of traditional doctrines and Scripture and the diverse creative impulses that come from recent philosophy and hermeneutics culture and praxis and ecumenical contacts This new volume combines and updates both previous volumes incorporates into the framework nearly twenty years of fresh thought and bibliography in each area and adds revisions to key articles to take account of a diverse fluid and postmodern situation

Religion and Ecology in the Public Sphere Celia Deane-Drummond, Heinrich Bedford-Strohm, 2011-06-30 Science and Wisdom Jürgen Moltmann, 2003 Moltmann's new book offers a careful theological reading of our contemporary scientific worldview and directly addresses the related cultural dilemmas Moltmann begins by analyzing the identification of science with the modern spirit and the religious assumptions that inform Western science He affirms the positive side of scientific advancement sees the present crisis clearly and looks for wisdom that can guide our scientific and religious future The heart of Moltmann's work is a theological understanding and assessment of contemporary cosmology Core chapters look at creation as an open system the self emptying or kenosis of God in the history of the universe eschatology the problems of time and eternity and the idea of God and space In the final chapters he addresses specific questions in bioethics historical conflicts between religion and science and cosmology in a world religious context

Journal of Theology for Southern Africa, 2002 SCE V13/2:Articles Esther Reed, 2000 Spirituality in Ministerial Formation Andrew D. Mayes, 2009 In recent years theological education and training for both lay and ordained ministry have been reconceived in terms of ministerial formation But what is the origin of this paradigm and what difference does it actually make to both teachers and learners This study not only addresses these questions but also offering perspectives from the Eastern Christian traditions and from empirical research uncovers a dynamic role for prayer in the learning process It explores how different types of prayer have the potential to be a significant integrative cognitive healing empowering influence in ministerial formation and to enable a transformative process of deep learning It will prove not only to be a reference book for all practitioners in the field of theological education but also a practical workbook for teachers and students as its questions for individual or group use challenge present practice and open up new possibilities for the healing of the historic divide between theology and spirituality The book identifies elements for the development of a rich theology of ministerial formation which will enhance and energize the practice of theological education Seeking to re balance training and formation it invites a rethink of current functionalist approaches to professionalized lay and ordained ministry in terms of discovering creative and surprising functions of spirituality within the learning process The book thus has implications for the teaching of spirituality highlighting the need to articulate an integrated spirituality of education It also addresses important aspects of the Church's mission in society and the imperative of resourcing clergy and lay ministers for their engagement with the rising interest in spirituality in today's culture Book Jacket Ecology at the Heart of Faith Denis Edwards, 2006 In a world born of the big bang Edwards shows that humanity and the world are together being made into the image of God The heart of faith is an ecological communion that holds together and grows in love toward the fullness of life imaged in the Resurrection of Jesus Denis Edwards helps the general reader the preacher the spiritual director the student and the theologian tear down the walls that too often separate mysticism theology prophecy poetry and science Book jacket

Fifty Years in Science and Religion Robert J. Russell, 2004 Ian G Barbour is the internationally acknowledged pioneer in the field of science and religion Although public opinion is often swayed by strident voices which attempt to place science and religion in conflict or keep them totally isolated Barbour's voluminous contributions over the past fifty years have carved out a trusted pathway to constructive dialogue and creative mutual interaction between science and religion Fifty Years in Science and Religion brings together nineteen leading scholars in the field to offer an appreciative yet critical assessment of the impact of Barbour's work on science and religion and to point ahead towards future critical areas goals and tasks that await new research and visionary exploration This book includes a unique autobiography by Barbour in which for the first time he shares and reflects on his life and work and a detailed bibliography of Barbour's works Together the authors demonstrate how Barbour's writings and the hundreds of scholars who have now become part of the field have changed the course of intellectual history in the West by making possible and necessary a truly constructive engagement between science and religion in the context of inter religious dialogue and the global human and environmental challenges of our time

Christian Bioethics: A Guide for the Perplexed Agneta Sutton, 2008-08 A new Guide for the Perplexed title providing an examination of bioethics that will couple Christian and philosophical perspectives Encyclopedia of Science and Religion Jacobus Wentzel Van Huyssteen, 2003 A multidisciplinary approach that addresses all aspects of the dialogue between the sciences and the world's religions reaching into the humanities as well as into the physical sciences and technology Examines controversial issues such as human cloning and stem cell research long with more traditional questions such as the origins of life the nature of sin and the philosophy of science and religion 4 volumes Perspectives on Science and Christian Faith, 2007 CURRENT CONTENTS January 7, 2002 Volume 24 Number 1, 2002 Eschatology and Hope Anthony Kelly, 2006 This text offers an introduction to the central theme of Christian eschatology the doctrine and study of what Christian's hope for as they follow the Way taught by the prophets and saints and above all opened up in the paschal mystery of Jesus of Nazareth Hoping for life after death a sage once said is not a particularly religious action Here Anthony Kelly examines the concept of hope in general and how eschatology enlarges the scope of what human's anticipate in ways that transcend mere continuation of life after life Kelly helps the reader see that Christian hope involves much more than hope for personal immortality Life in Our Hands John Bryant, John Searle, 2004 Explores the ethics of genetic and biological modification of plants animals and humans Encyclopedia of Science and Religion, 2003 Publisher description How do the latest medical developments affect our beliefs in faith's healing power Can artificial intelligence compare with human consciousness Are genetic engineers interfering with Nature's work This reference work deals with these questions and others examining the issues and the history associated with the complex relationship between science and religion Articles by scientists of many fields philosophers and thinkers from all the major world religions present a variety of perspectives on the major scientific discoveries of our time and their effects on our religious belief system
