Facilitating Collective Intelligence Chantal Nève-Hanquet, Agathe Crespel, 2019-08-19 Chantal Nève-Hanquet and Agathe Crespel provide an accessible and ground breaking guide to genuinely effective group work sharing excellent hands on assistance for coaches and facilitators Offering a unique selection of guidelines and illustrations for group work the authors demonstrate the benefits of using creative action methods in practice helping leaders discover new ways to achieve dynamic group sessions and endowing their work with new vigour as well as pleasure Facilitating Collective Intelligence brings together a wealth of knowledge and techniques from psychodrama Jungian and systemic analysis to inform group facilitation Throughout the book's four parts key inner attitudes questions and action techniques are explored to help facilitators nourish open and flexible forms of communication within groups stimulate collective intelligence and foster creative approaches to collective problem solving With the help of numerous sensitively related case studies the book guides the reader through the process of achieving more dynamism in group work fostering creativity encouraging agility and developing co construction within groups It contains more than thirty practical reference sheets which provide an instant aid for implementing the methods and models in the book Nève-Hanquet and Crespel's approach advocates the use of actions methods specifically the ARC model to encourage out of the box thinking and develop new paths and strategies in working with teams and organizations Facilitating Collective Intelligence is an invaluable and essential tool in cultivating effective group dynamics for all coaches coach supervisors and consultants both experienced and in training Due to its clear and practical structure it will also be useful for counsellors coaching psychologists and other professionals who work with groups as well as students and academics of coaching and coaching psychology

Drama, Psychotherapy and Psychosis John Casson, 2004-03-11 other books on dramatherapy do not address the needs experiences of people who hear voices innovative practical solutions for effective therapy based on recent research foreword written by of the originators of psychodrama Zerka Moreno and afterword written by very well know figure in this field Sue Jennings

Global Perspectives on Interventions in Forensic Therapeutic Communities Geraldine Akerman, Richard Shuker, 2022-02-10 Global Perspectives on Interventions in Forensic Therapeutic Communities A Practitioner's Guide explores the validity and effectiveness of secure settings as therapeutic communities TCs Rooted in practice this book examines the transferability of approaches within international TCs to other forensic settings while considering how the environment contributes to effectiveness In this volume Akerman and Shuker bring together leading clinicians from across the world to offer insight into critical topics including the impact of gang membership on therapeutic process and the community how core creative therapies are integrated and how the model is applied in international settings and across varied contexts Leading clinicians draw on rare reports and papers to explain the therapeutic community model while keeping in mind the diverse contexts within which it is practiced The book provides a much needed global perspective on the diverse role TCs have across forensic services This groundbreaking book is valuable reading for forensic and clinical psychologists counsellors social workers and psychiatrists working in secure prison or rehabilitation settings as well as students in these fields Supervision in Psychodrama Hannes Krall,Jutta Fürst,Pierre Fontaine,2012-08-24 Supervision plays an essential role in the process of learning and professional development in psychotherapy and training High quality in supervision is a crucial part of the training to support and to guide trainees and to be a reliable point of reference in terms of practice and theory technical and methodological standards ethical issues research and evaluation Therefore the main purpose of this book is to share ways of doing supervision in psychodrama among supervisors and trainers in different countries and to stimulate further discussion and development

Sociatry ,1957 The Healing Power of Community Lusijah Marx,Graham Harriman,Robin McCoy

Brooks,2024-07-04 The Healing Power of Community offers a diverse cross section of interdisciplinary and depth psychological perspectives in support of using mutual aid approaches in all levels of group and community practice as a remedy for individualism and social and political divisions centering social justice Written by three distinct voices who collaborated at the height of the AIDS crisis the book begins with an autoethnographic study of Project Quest an HIV AIDS clinic established in 1989 before looking at how the lessons learnt from this clinic can be applied to our current global mental health climate Filled with clinical and theoretical applications chapters include content on what mutual aid communities are rethinking professionalism and boundaries in a crisis healing collective trauma group psychotherapy psychodrama depth psychology and how mental health professionals can support radical change of key structures in nonprofit clinics public administration private practice and research Arguing for their approach of radicalizing mental health and community based practice today the book examines how this can be achieved by moving beyond individual level approaches creating new frameworks to meet the mental health needs of our era in creative ways This book is designed to engage clinical social workers and mental health care clinicians working in community based mental health as well as those involved in community psychology collective trauma and grief HIV AIDS advocacy policy making and political advocacy Creative Action

Methods in Groupwork Andy Hickson,1995 Suitable for groups of different ages this practical manual discusses and outlines action method techniques that can be used to explore difficulties or problems within the safety of a group Covers different approaches to action methods including forum image games exercises psychodrama and ritual Includes more than 120 activities for groups covering the body the voice the senses games images and scenes Requires few materials and little preparation Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Team Sports: Contextualizing Training and Competition

Demands Miguel-Angel Gomez-Ruano,Pierpaolo Sansone,Vincenzo Rago,2024-12-04 Team sports performance is determined by the complex non linear interaction of several factors including physical and physiological aspects technical tactical constraints mental demands perceptual and emotional aspects and contextual and environmental factors The influence of each of these aspects has been previously investigated However studies have often employed monodimensional perspectives

looking at one or only a few different domains concurrently In football and rugby extensive efforts have been produced to contextualize the demands of training and competition based on players characteristics tactical constraints and contextual factors This information facilitates coaches in selecting the most appropriate training and competition strategies based on a number of different factors including the team and the opponents characteristics technical tactical abilities fitness status and considering contextual factors Differently there is a lack of information on contextualized competition demands in other team sports such as basketball handball futsal and volleyball Furthermore the mental demands and psychological and emotional implications of team sports have received little or monodimensional attention limiting the applicability of findings in real life scenarios where a multitude of factors belonging to different disciplines e g physiology psychology training science social sciences need to be taken into account TDR. ,2000 Human Nature and Management Ordway Tead,1929

Planning Methods Paul C. Nutt,1984 This book provides an integrated framework for planning at the strategic and project level emphasizing the improvement of plan ning practice in organizations It utilizes a methods approach to apply traditional planning methods to the health field It also includes a careful description of planning techniques and the inte gration of these techniques into a planning framework Both the plan ner and the plan s sponsor point of view are presented and case stu dies which illustrate how most planning is done informally with a low level of sophistication are included
