Creative Activities In Church Education:

Creative Activities in Church Education Patricia Griggs, 1974 Creative Activities in Church Education United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. Board of Christian Education, 1958 Creative Ideas for Catechists Ruth Ann Rost, 1997-08 Rost takes us into the delightful dimension of creative catechetics with its powerful impact on children's faith learning. She first leads us in an exploration of our own creativity, our sense of prayer and our own sense of discipleship. She then suggests ways to enliven the gathering space using the children's five senses to help open them to these rich faith experiences. She offers approaches to the critical factors in preparation, presentation and procedure that make for successful empowerment of the child's faith learning. She also includes scores of practical ideas for involving primary and middle grade children in making prayer, helping them express their unity with God through prayer. Finally, she discusses the many resources essential to our own spiritual formation which must go hand in hand with that of unfolding a vibrant faith life in children. An excellent resource to inspire, encourage and sensibly guide catechetical ministry as it is meant to be joy-filled, revitalizing and life impacting. Proceedings of the 3rd International Conference on Christian and Inter-Religious Studies (ICC-IRS 2024) Desi Natalia, Maria Veronica, Deri Susanto, 2025-07-16 This is an open access book. Third International Conference on Christian and Inter-Religious Studies ICC IRS 2024 will be held in Palangka Raya from June 20-22, 2024. This prestigious event is organized by the Institut Agama Kristen Negeri IAKN Palangka Raya as part of an ongoing effort to facilitate academic discussions on critical issues in the digital era. With the theme Religion Education and Culture in the Digital Age, this conference will serve as a forum for scholars, researchers and practitioners from various backgrounds to discuss and share insights in the fields of religion and education. The topics to be covered include a wide range of disciplines including Education, Theology, Psychology and Counseling, Sociology and Philosophy of Religion, Religious Moderation as well as Music and Arts. To enrich the discussions, the conference will feature distinguished academics from both domestic and international institutions as keynote speakers. With great enthusiasm, the committee has received over 200 participants from various institutions and of these approximately 125 manuscripts have been approved for presentation. From these presentations around 75 full papers will be selected for publication. It is hoped that this conference will not only contribute significantly to the advancement of knowledge in the field of religion but also strengthen academic networks among the participants, fostering further collaboration in the future. Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1976 Childhood Education in the Church Robert E. Clark, Joanne Brubaker, Roy B. Zuck, 1986 Early training of children in the basic truths of Christianity has become an increasingly high priority in Christian circles. To satisfy the demand for up to date material on the subject, editors Robert Clark, Joanne Brubaker and Roy Zuck have revised and expanded Childhood Education in the Church. Numerous revisions and several new chapters, some by new authors, have been added including essays on Teaching Exceptional Children and The Role of Home Schooling in Childhood Education. Written by a wide variety of experts in Christian education this volume is designed for use in teacher training classes and for professional training in Bible colleges and seminaries Each of the thirty five articles explores a specific area of importance to childhood education Together they present a complete picture of Christian education of children back of book
