responses and creative states at the local and global levels New Serial Titles ,1997 A union list of serials commencing publication after Dec 31 1949 Science Fiction and the Cultural Politics of Education Graham B. Slater,2026-01-22 Increasingly contemporary education exhibits characteristics that have often been associated with science fiction The acceleration of technological change and ecological crisis and the intensification of fascist authoritarian and xenophobic identifications haunt both the present and possible futures Despite these emergent tendencies educational discourse retains its marketized assumptions instrumental economism and techno optimism The pursuit of educational futures that are informed by a cultural politics of utopian imagination faces major obstacles to intervene in time to map alternative trajectories and build new worlds Bringing together diverse perspectives theoretical approaches and texts the book asks what science fiction can bring to cultural politics in education and how the cultural politics of science fiction can transform educational futures It also questions whether science fiction can guide educational projects that aim to foster visions of what Fredric Jameson called unimaginable futures and if critical studies of science fiction can guide scholars teachers and cultural workers to think about the purpose and potential of education in the current moment This imaginative volume demonstrates how thinking with science fiction affords educators a speculative energy made artificially scarce by precarious conditions reactionary ideologies and hegemonic practicality This book was originally published as a special issue of Review of Education Pedagogy and Cultural Studies Creative Black Book Portfolio Edition Press Friendly,Marty Goldstein,Stuart Waldman,1987-01-01 Black Sabbath , Creative Conflict in African American Thought Wilson Jeremiah Moses,2004-05-10 Building upon his previous work and using Richard Hofstadter s The American Political Tradition as a model Professor Moses has revised and brought together in this book essays that focus on the complexity of and contradictions in the thought of five major African American intellectuals Frederick Douglass Alexander Crummell Booker T Washington W E B DuBois and Marcus M Garvey In doing so he challenges both popular and scholarly conceptions of them as villains or heroes In analyzing the intellectual struggles and contradictions of these five dominant personalities with regard to individual morality and collective reform Professor Moses shows how they contributed to strategies for black improvement and puts them within the context of other currents of American thought including Jeffersonian and Jacksonian democracy Social Darwinism and progressivism Creative Camera ,1988 A Black British Canon? G. Low,M. Wynne-Davies,2006-10-31 This much needed collection examines the formation of a black British canon including writers dramatists film makers and artists Contributors including John McLeod Michael McMillan Mike Phillips and Alison Donnell discuss the textual political and cultural history of black British and the term black British itself Myth and the Creative Process Jacob E. Nyenhuis,2003 In a century that was dominated by science and technology the wide ranging artwork of Michael Ayrton 1921 75 is truly a tribute to the enduring power of Greek myth Theorists often discuss the link between myth and creativity but rarely does one see this connection manifested so provocatively over the course of an artist s career

Fittingly this British sculptor painter author filmmaker and maze designer was inspired by the story of the archetypal craftsman Daedalus father of Icarus and maker of the labyrinth that imprisoned the Minotaur and produced over 800 works that in turn enhance the myth's significance Highlighting the interaction between myth and artist word and image Jacob Nyenhuis here presents a catalogue of these works one that will enlighten Ayrton's British following while introducing him to an American audience A nonconformist who challenged Picasso's reign over the art world Ayrton found in Daedalus a richly complex story of captivity and escape ingenuity and creativity flight and fall success and failure Ayrton's own journey into the labyrinth set him on a torturous path through life and into the psyche he came to identify himself not only with the craftsman but also with the Minotaur representative of the bestial nature hidden within all of us He ultimately created a new visual syntax that expanded the meaning of the labyrinth in disturbing ways for the twentieth century The intensity of Ayrton's journey is conveyed in this beautifully produced volume comprising biography critical analysis historical context and an annotated catalogue of the works many appearing in color
