Nyenhuis,2003 In a century that was dominated by science and technology the wide ranging artwork of Michael Ayrton 1921 75 is truly a tribute to the enduring power of Greek myth Theorists often discuss the link between myth and creativity but rarely does one see this connection manifested so provocatively over the course of an artist s career Fittingly this British sculptor painter author filmmaker and maze designer was inspired by the story of the archetypal craftsman Daedalus father of Icarus and maker of the labyrinth that imprisoned the Minotaur and produced over 800 works that in turn enhance the myth s significance Highlighting the interaction between myth and artist word and image Jacob Nyenhuis here presents a catalogue of these works one that will enlighten Ayrton s British following while introducing him to an American audience A nonconformist who challenged Picasso s reign over the art world Ayrton found in Daedalus a richly complex story of captivity and escape ingenuity and creativity flight and fall success and failure Ayrton s own journey into the labyrinth set him on a torturous path through life and into the psyche he came to identify himself not only with the craftsman but also with the Minotaur representative of the bestial nature hidden within all of us He ultimately created a new visual syntax that expanded the meaning of the labyrinth in disturbing ways for the twentieth century The intensity of Ayrton s journey is conveyed in this beautifully produced volume comprising biography critical analysis historical context and an annotated catalogue of the works many appearing in color The Creative Black Book 1992 ,1992 AV Market Place 1995 R R Bowker Publishing,Bowker,1995 Books in Print ,1994 *History of White Wave, Inc.
