Così nevylovitelného Vladimír Birgus, Tomáš Pospěch, 2003 A publisher educator historian and curator Vladimír Birgus is a devoted photographer of the subjective moment Since the early 1970s he has been capturing people and places in compositions that treat color and tone rigorously but never foreclose on the reading of the image Something Unspeakable follows him through different cities and everyday encounters moods hidden desires and emotions

An Introduction to Women's Studies Inderpal Grewal, Caren Kaplan, 2002 This anthology for first and second year students introduces them to the history of key ideas in the modern period related to sexual difference gender race class and sexuality While most introductory Women's Studies textbooks focus on the United States even if they add multiculturalism to the discussion this book looks at the history of important differences between women in diverse locations around the world and continually challenges students to think through the issues that are raised This transnational approach to understanding gender brings Women's Studies into an era of globalization and connects women's issues in the United States to women's issues elsewhere The book shows how colonialism and imperialism as they spread across the world shaped ideas about gender as much as other modern phenomena It addresses issues of power and inequalities and focuses on links and connections rather than commonalities The readings are truly interdisciplinary drawing upon scholarly work in many disciplines and interdisciplinary fields as well as non-scholarly sources
