Creative Creatures Willem B. Drees, Ulf Görman, Hubert Meisinger, 2005 Creative Creatures Ulf Görman, Willem Drees, Hubert Meisinger, 2005-12-30 This anthology with contributions by leading scholars introduces a new theme into the growing field of science and theology This is the third volume published in association with ESSSAT in the series This volume focuses on two topics that have so far received little attention in the growing field of science and theology i e ethical matters and issues raised by the technological applications of scientific knowledge The book s main themes are technology s impact on our worldview morality nature and culture and morality in a technological society The book is a selection of contributions to the ESSSAT conference in Nijmegen on Values and Ethical Issues in Theology Science and Technology The essays have been selected on the basis of quality and revised in order to create a comprehensive and carefully focused volume

Human Identity at the Intersection of Science, Technology and Religion Dr Christopher C Knight, Professor Nancey Murphy, 2013-06-28 Humans are unique in their ability to reflect on themselves Recently a number of scholars have pointed out that human self conceptions have a history Ideas of human nature in the West have always been shaped by the interplay of philosophy theology science and technology The fast pace of developments in the latter two spheres neuroscience genetics artificial intelligence biomedical engineering call for fresh reflections on what it means now to be human and for theological and ethical judgments on how we might shape our own destiny in the future The leading scholars in this book offer fresh contributions to the lively quest for an account of ourselves that does justice to current developments in theology science technology and philosophy Science, Religion, the Humanities and Hope Anne Runehov, Michael Fuller, 2024-03-19 This book collects a multidisciplinary range of contributions focusing on the prolific and seminal work of Willem Drees in the fields of philosophy of religion philosophy of the humanities and science and theology religion Trained in both theoretical physics and theology philosophy of religion Drees holds doctoral degrees in both theology and in philosophy and amongst other distinguished positions held professorships at the University of Leiden and at the University of Tilburg Drees was also Editor in Chief of Zygon Journal of Religion Science between 2008 and 2018 and served as President of the European Society for the Study of Science and Theology ESSSAT between 2002 and 2008 In 2018 he was elected as member of the Royal Holland Society of Sciences and Humanities KHMW This contributed volume builds on Drees expansive and provocative scholarly contributions notably around the concept and meaning of naturalism and the humanities to the fields of science and religion as exemplified by his works Religion Science and Naturalism 1996 and What Are the Humanities For 2021 In a time where more and more young people across the globe are entering higher education such cross disciplinary explorations and re evaluations are vital to the field Accordingly by approaching his work from a variety of disciplines this collection illuminates the broad reach of Drees work and provides scholars from various fields with many new and rich opportunities avenues for research Human Identity at the Intersection of Science, Technology and Religion Christopher

C. Knight, 2016-05-13 Humans are unique in their ability to reflect on themselves Recently a number of scholars have pointed out that human self conceptions have a history Ideas of human nature in the West have always been shaped by the interplay of philosophy theology science and technology The fast pace of developments in the latter two spheres neuroscience genetics artificial intelligence biomedical engineering call for fresh reflections on what it means now to be human and for theological and ethical judgments on how we might shape our own destiny in the future The leading scholars in this book offer fresh contributions to the lively quest for an account of ourselves that does justice to current developments in theology science technology and philosophy

The Groaning of Creation Christopher Southgate, 2008-01-01 Pain suffering and extinction are intrinsic to the evolutionary process In this book Christopher Southgate shows how the world that is very good is also groaning in travail and subjected by God to that travail Southgate then evaluates several attempts at evolutionary theodicy and argues for his own approach an approach that takes full account of God's self emptying and human beings' special responsibilities as created cocreators Christopher Southgate is Honorary University Fellow in Theology at the University of Exeter England and Visiting Scholar at the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley California Originally trained as a biochemist at the University of Cambridge he is the general editor and principal author of God Humanity and the Cosmos 3rd ed

Future Perfect? Celia Deane-Drummond, Peter Manley Scott, 2006-06-27 A hugely topical collection of essays from a cross disciplinary group of leading academics focussing on the implications for an understanding of human identity in light of the current possibilities in medical science The book brings together an international body of medical experts alongside philosophers sociologists theologians and ethicists in order to discuss these vital issues The ensuing discussion will allow public debate to be more informed about the actual possibilities inherent in medical science alongside a sophisticated treatment of ethical and theological issues The result is a focused collection of essays that raises new and challenging questions

The Digitalised Image of God Ximian Xu, 2024-10-08 This book focuses on the idea of the imago Dei to engaging theologically with artificial intelligence AI It reflects on how enormous progress in the development of AI has raised some challenges to Christian theology Questions explored include is AI created in the imago Dei If so does AI challenge the uniqueness of the human being as the imago Dei If not could AI be incorporated into human communities as a human companion in the same way as a natural human person Would AI eventually develop to have human level consciousness and be capable of performing liturgies and ethical actions Bringing to light the radical distinction between the imago Dei and the imago hominis the book constructs a theo ontological foundation for AI and draws on the Reformed theology of archetype as a metaphysical tool to deploy a holistic account of the imago Dei in theology AI dialogues The author argues that the imago Dei is the signifier of the beginning both of God human stories and stories of human ethical performances towards others From the perspective of the image of the imago Dei it can be argued that AI can somehow participate into the narration of these religious and ethical stories This book will be of particular interest to scholars of theology and those
