Millennial Fever and the End of the World George R. Knight, 1993 Black Wednesday October 23 1844 That was to have been the first day in heaven Instead the advent believers found themselves still chained to earth reeling in shock and grief the laughingstock of the jeering world The Bible they were utterly certain had said Jesus would return on October 22 He hadn't The Bible proved to failure asked Hiram Edson voicing the giant questions haunting the wounded flock Is there no God no heaven no golden home city no paradise Is this all but a cunningly devised fable A century and a half have now passed In this landmark volume author historian George Knight recounts the history of that shattering disappointment a crucible of dashed hopes from which arose today's Seventh day Adventist Church Fifteen decades after the great disappointment Jesus still has not come The swift cruelty of overpowering shock has given way to an ever deepening disillusionment and skepticism After October 22 1844 the advent believers could only wonder why Jesus hadn't come Today some Adventists may wonder if He ever will Adventists without an advent Fable chasers Somewhere between white hot millennial fever and hope grown stone cold lies the patience of the second advent saints This book shows how to find it Wines & Vines H.
