It all started about a decade ago when the economy went south and I lost my job. I found myself without purpose, surviving on unemployment checks and aimlessly searching for an alternative way to earn a living. Contrarily, losing my job was one of the best things that has ever happened to me. The part I didn't handle so well was the uncertainty: How was I going to support myself? What was I going to do with myself? Every day I faced the daunting task of finding a new job, no easy feat during the great financial crash of 2008-2009 and the biggest economic downturn in my life. I'd heard of the possibilities of blogging. There were a few bloggers doing what I could only dream of doing: Making a living just for doing something they loved. I gave it some consideration and contacted some of them. Many were kind enough to answer my emails, and some gave me some solid advice on getting started with my very own blog.
