Catholic Emancipation Fergus O'Ferrall, 1985 A History of Ireland, 1800-1922 Hilary Larkin, 2014-02-01 The years of Ireland's union with Great Britain are most often regarded as a period of great turbulence and conflict And so they were But there are other stories too and these need to be integrated in any account of the period Ireland's progressive primary education system is examined here alongside the Famine the growth of a happily middle class Victorian suburbia is taken into account as well as the appalling Dublin slum statistics In each case neither story stands without the other This study synthesises some of the main scholarly developments in Irish and British historiography and seeks to provide an updated and fuller understanding of the debates surrounding nineteenth and early twentieth century history Ireland 1798-1998 Alvin Jackson, 2010-04-26 Receiving widespread critical acclaim when first published Ireland 1798-1998 has been revised to include coverage of the most recent developments Jackson's stylish and impartial interpretation continues to provide the most up to date and important survey of 200 years of Irish history A new edition of this highly acclaimed history of Ireland reflecting both the very latest political developments and growth of scholarship Jackson provides a balanced and authoritative account of the complex political history of modern Ireland Draws on original research and extensive reading of the latest secondary literature Jackson provides an impressive treatment of events coupled with flowing narrative delivered analytically and elegantly Nineteenth-Century Ireland (New Gill History of Ireland 5) D. George Boyce, 2005-09-27 The elusive search for stability is the subject of Professor D George Boyce's Nineteenth Century Ireland the fifth in the New Gill History of Ireland series Nineteenth century Ireland began and ended in armed revolt The bloody insurrections of 1798 were the proximate reasons for the passing of the Act of Union two years later The long nineteenth century lasted until 1922 by which the institutions of modern Ireland were in place against a background of the Great War the Ulster rebellion and the armed uprising of the nationalist Ireland The hope was that in an imperial structure the ethnic religious and national differences of the inhabitants of Ireland could be reconciled and eliminated Nationalist Ireland mobilised a mass democratic movement under Daniel O'Connell to secure Catholic Emancipation before seeing its world transformed by the social cataclysm of the Great Irish Potato Famine At the same time the Protestant north east of Ulster was feeling the first benefits of the Industrial Revolution Although post Famine Ireland modernised rapidly only the north east had a modern economy The mixture of Protestantism and manufacturing industry integrated into the greater United Kingdom and gave a new twist to the traditional Irish Protestant hostility to Catholic political demands In the home rule period from the 1880s to 1914 the prospect of partition moved from being almost unthinkable to being almost inevitable Nineteenth century Ireland collapsed in the various wars and rebellions of 1912-22 Like many other parts of Europe then and since it had proved that an imperial superstructure can contain domestic ethnic rivalries but cannot always eliminate them Nineteenth Century Ireland Table of Contents Introduction The Union Prelude and Aftermath 1798-1808 The Catholic Question and Protestant Answers 1808-29
