The Church's Best-Kept Secret Mark Shea, 2020-09-21

The Church's Best Kept Secret is a short primer which lays out the basics of Catholic social teaching in a way accessible to the ordinary Catholic as well as to any other person of good will attempting to grasp this often profoundly misunderstood area of Church doctrine and practice. Writing in everyday language for the non scholar award winning writer Mark Shea concisely describes the roots of Catholic social teaching in Scripture and Tradition and gives simple practical examples of how it works in ordinary life. Sketching the meaning of the Dignity of the Human Person, the Common Good, Subsidiarity and Solidarity, Shea bridges the gulf in our politics and cultural warfare to make the case that Catholic Social Teaching properly understood is common sense as well as the path to living a happier and more just common life for each human person.

Catholic Social Teaching and Movements Marvin L. Krier, 1998. This introductory book to Catholic social teaching covers not only the official documents and encyclicals but also gives a sense of the movements and people who embodied the struggle for social justice in the last 100 years.

Catholic Social Teaching Roger Aubert, 2003. Annotation: During the last years many meetings, seminars, conferences and books have been conducted and written to celebrate the hundredth anniversary of Pope Leo XIII's encyclical Rerum novarum (May 15, 1891). We hope in this book to give the reader an historical background to this celebration. No other historian in Catholic circles enjoys the reputation of Canon Roger Aubert. Thus we are presenting ten of his articles that have to do with Catholic social teaching. These articles give very measured descriptions of the struggles, defeats and successes that mark the birth of Catholic social teaching. Their reading should produce great wonder and awe at the stance taken by the Church over the last hundred years. That they have not been adhered to and that they are called our best kept secret underlines the fact and the struggle that we all have to become truly Christian.
