Cathys Choice:

Caring for Cathy Gil Hogg, 2008 A man without a past and a woman without a future This is the story of a friendship between a young musician David who has lost his memory in a car accident and an older woman Cathy who is dying from Huntington's disease Both are confined to Denby Hall a pleasant unconventional neurological nursing home near Brighton The home does not allow dogs so David takes it upon himself to help Cathy to see her dog occasionally In Cathy's words she and David are marooned on an island of misunderstanding As David's efforts stir up trouble at the home the nature of Cathy's relationships with those closest to her are revealed in this light hearted look at the horrors of degenerative disease and its effect on those who care Class Conflict in Emily Bronte's Wuthering Heights Dedria Bryfonski, 2011-07-22 Wuthering Heights is unique among novels of its time for its poetic presentation its lack of authorial comment and its unusual narrative structure exerting the energies of hate and love from the confined world of the story The book deeply challenged embedded Victorian conventions regarding gender equality religion and class This compelling volume discusses the author Emily Bronte's background the details of which are still not well understood class conflict in the context of rural and industrial Britain and contemporary perspectives on class conflict Becoming His Father's Son Ink Noir, Denise Dennis, Gregory P. Miller, 2005-11 Set in Philadelphia and revolving around a suspenseful legal case the novel Becoming His Father's Son tells the story of Alex Hamilton's redemption A successful Ivy League educated African American attorney Alex feels superior to other African Americans In fact he has achieved his success by winning racial discrimination cases using questionable tactics for wealthy corporate clients In stark contrast to Alex his physician father Dr Nate Hamilton has been practicing medicine in the inner city for thirty years often giving free treatment to patients who cannot afford to pay Dr Nate the son of a sharecropper grew up poor in Alabama and worked his way through college and medical school unlike Alex who has lived a life of privilege Alex and Nate haven't spoken to each other in years a situation that grieves Alex's mother May Hamilton When Dr Nate is accused of Medicare fraud and stands to lose everything he has worked for he turns to his son for help Alex makes a critical choice to defend his father a decision based on love and it irrevocably changes his life His law partners scheme to maneuver him out of the firm when they learn of his father's indictment and Alex begins to question all his former assumptions As they work on the defense case Nate reveals to Alex family secrets he had until then kept to himself and father and son achieve a new understanding The story ends with a suspenseful courtroom trial the trial of Alex's life and a surprise twist at the conclusion A collaboration of Gregory P Miller a senior partner in the law firm of Miller Alfano and Raspanti and author Denise Dennis Becoming His Father's Son follows the story from Independence Hall to the North Philadelphia ghetto The novel holds the readers interest until the last page is turned CCCS Selected Working Papers Ann Gray, Jan Campbell, Mark Erickson, Stuart Hanson, Helen Wood, 2007-11-07 This collection of classic essays focuses on the theoretical frameworks that informed the work of the Centre for Contemporary Cultural Studies at the University of Birmingham the
