From Rescue Shelter to Home Shelter Winston D. Munnings,2010 In 2006 my oldest daughter Indira Mandisa returned to our home in Cutler Bay South Florida for a six months stay and brought her pet feline Patience along Although I was not keen on the idea I agreed albeit under considerable pressure I was never a Cat Person as such and quite frankly never imagined having one of those furry little buggers around much less living with one Although I was initially insistent that the Cat s stay was going to be a short term situation Patience eventually grew on both my wife and I so much so that we became very fond of the little Feline This is therefore not only a photo storyline about how Patience conned her way into our home and eventually into our hearts but also how having her around really changed my point of view about Cats
