Cats In Krasinski Square:

The Cats in Krasinski Square Karen Hesse, Wendy Watson, 2007 The cats in Krasinski Square once belonged to someone and so did a young girl whose family has been destroyed by war Even as she and her sister struggle to survive amid the war's chaos they risk their lives for a plan to help those still trapped behind Warsaw's infamous Ghetto walls Newbery Medallist Karen Hesse has written a beautiful story about the courage of brave young women and men who at great risk fought not with weapons but with their hearts and souls Wendy Watson's luminous paintings inspire a visual journey to a time and place that should never be forgotten

Strategies that Work Stephanie Harvey, Anne Goudvis, 2007 Describes strategies teachers can use to promote reading comprehension in students from kindergarten through eighth grade and includes examples of student work illustrations and other reference tools

Teaching and Learning Through the Holocaust Anthony Pellegrino, Jeffrey Parker, 2022-12-16 This book serves as a critical resource for educators across various roles and contexts who are interested in Holocaust education that is both historically sound and practically relevant As a collection it pulls together a diverse group of scholars to share their research and experiences The volume endeavors to address topics including the nature and purpose of Holocaust education how our understanding of the Holocaust has changed and resources we can use with learners These themes are consistent across the chapters making for a comprehensive exploration of learning through the Holocaust today and in the future

Behaviour, Safety and Well Being Andrew Moffatt, 2017-07-05 The new Ofsted framework evaluates the behaviour and safety of pupils at the school This resource provides over 100 lesson plans promoting recognition of different emotions and behaviours practice in responding to those different emotions and behaviours good behaviour towards and respect for other young people and adults Each lesson plan is linked to a children's book and references SEAL Lessons can support Literacy PSHE and citizenship Lesson plans are bracketed into year groups and five or six week modules that give schools the opportunity to deliver specific projects on anti bullying safeguarding pupil voice and transition There are also modules covering emotions such as anger loneliness excitement jealousy kindness pride and confidence This is a comprehensive accessible and invaluable tool for every classroom

Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books Doris Gebel, United States Board on Books for Young People, 2006-05-25 This annotated bibliography organized geographically by world region and country describing nearly 700 books representing 73 countries is a valuable resource for librarians teachers and anyone else seeking to promote international understanding through children's literature It is the third volume sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People The first Carl M Tomlinson's Children's Books from Other Countries 1998 is a compendium of international children's literature with annotations of both in and out of print books published between 1950 and 1996 Susan Stan's The World Through Children's Books 2002 was the second and it included books published between the years 1997 and 2000 Crossing Boundaries includes international children's books published between 2000 and 2004 as well as selected American books set in countries other than the United States Editor Doris Gebel has compiled an important tool for providing stories that will help children understand our differences while simultaneously demonstrating our common humanity The Common Core in Grades 4-6 Roger Sutton, Daryl Grabarek, 2014-04-18 The Classroom Go To Guide for the Common Core is the first in a series of comprehensive tools to tap into the vast flow of recently published books for children and teens offering recommendations of exemplary titles for use in the classroom Currency meets authority brought to you by the editors of the highly regarded review sources School Library Journal and The Horn Book Magazine This guide includes approximately 200 selections published since 2007 for grades 4-6 recommended by The Horn Book Magazine The titles are grouped by subject and complemented by School Library Journal's Focus On columns which spotlight specific topics across the curriculum Providing context for the guide and suggestions on how to use these resources within a standards framework is an introduction by Common Core experts Mary Ann Cappiello and Myra Zarnowski These experts provide perspective on the key changes brought by the new standards including suggestions on designing lessons and two sample plans Following the introduction you'll find a wealth of books by category Each section includes a listing of the top titles with brief explicit annotations and key bibliographic data Focus On articles are appended to appropriate categories to support in-depth curricular development Each of these articles includes a topic overview and list of current and retrospective resources including some fiction and multimedia that will enable educators to respond to Common Core State Standards call to work across formats [Picture This!
