Caught In A Higher Love:

Colin's Campus Gary M. Bouchard, 2000 Colin's Campus argues that pastoral poetry is inevitably a backwards looking genre preoccupied with the past This preoccupation in the case of Spenser as well as his pastoral followers returned him to the Cambridge he had recently left behind not the court to which he never really arrived Responding to the pastoral court connection which has been at the center of nearly all historical considerations of pastoral for the past two decades this study invites readers to seriously consider the reverse connection that is the academic ingredients in the pastoral world BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Six glees ... dedication to the members of the catch club Thomas Forbes Walmisley, 1830 Catch the Fire Michael Wilkinson, Peter Althouse, 2014-03-15 A recent phenomenon of charismatic renewal took place in Toronto in the mid 1990s Commonly known as the Toronto Blessing and operated by the former Vineyard Church leaders John and Carol Arnott the renewal was defined by reports of uncontrollable laughter weeping speaking in tongues animal noises and falling on the floor during worship Sympathetic Christians embraced these practices while others who believed that this form of worship boarded on spectacle rejected them By the end of the 1990s most people thought that the renewal was over Yet in the first decade of the twenty first century the authors a sociologist and a theologian heard rumors that the Toronto church now known as Catch the Fire was still holding mass meetings with upwards of 2 000 people in attendance They also learned of an emerging practice of soaking prayer an adaption of Pentecostal charismatic prayer that participants and leaders claim facilitates and expands the reception of divine love in order to give it away in acts of forgiveness reconciliation compassion and benevolence Soaking the authors reveal is a metaphor for practices like resting in the Spirit prayer for spiritual gifts healing prophecy impartation and supports overall charismatic spirituality Attending Catch the Fire conferences churches and house meetings in the United States Canada Britain Australia and New Zealand Wilkinson and Althouse observed first hand how people soak what it means to soak and why soaking is considered an important practice among charismatics Climbing the hill, by the author of 'A trap to catch a sunbeam'. Matilda Anne Mackarness, 1868 Jasper Mauduit Jasper Mauduit, 1918 Letters addressed to Jasper Mauduit when agent in London for the Province of the Massachusetts Bay Page v Sunday Reflections for the Church Year Anna Austen McCulloh, 1912 Revolution of Things Kusha Sefat, 2023-05-23 An exploration of the ways that shifting relations between materiality and language bring about different forms of politics in Tehran In Revolution of Things Kusha Sefat traces a dynamism between materiality and language that sheds light on how the merger of the two permeates politics To show how shifting relations between things and terms form the grounds for different modes of action Sefat reconstructs the political history of postrevolutionary Iran at the intersection of everyday objects and words Just as Islamism fashioned its own objects in Tehran during the 1980s he explains tyrannical objects generated a distinct form of Islamism by means of their material properties everyday things from walls to shoes to foods were active political players that helped consolidate the Islamic Republic Moreover President Rafsanjani's liberalization in the 1990s was based not merely on state policies and post Islamist ideologies but also on the unlikely things including consumer products from the West that engendered and sustained liberalism in Tehran Sefat shows how provincial vocabularies transformed into Islamist and post Islamist discourses through the circulation of international objects The globalization of objects he argues was constitutive of the different forms that politics took in Tehran with each constellation affording and foreclosing distinct modes of agency Sefat's intention is not to alter historical facts about the Islamic Republic but to show how we can rethink the matter of those facts By bringing the recent material turn into conversation with the canons of structural analysis poststructuralist theory sociolinguistics and Middle East studies Sefat offers a unique perspective on Iran's revolution and its aftermath Plays:
