Causality Narrative In French Fiction:

Causality and Narrative in French Fiction from Zola to Robbe-Grillet Roy Jay Nelson, 1990 Causality and Narrative in French Fiction from Zola to Robbe-Grillet Roy Jay Nelson, 1990 A Cultural History of Causality Stephen Kern, 2009-01-10 This pioneering work is the first to trace how our understanding of the causes of human behavior has changed radically over the course of European and American cultural history since 1830 Focusing on the act of murder as documented vividly by more than a hundred novels including Crime and Punishment An American Tragedy The Trial and Lolita Stephen Kern devotes each chapter of A Cultural History of Causality to examining a specific causal factor or motive for murder ancestry childhood language sexuality emotion mind society and ideology In addition to drawing on particular novels each chapter considers the sciences genetics endocrinology physiology neuroscience and systems of thought psychoanalysis linguistics sociology forensic psychiatry and existential philosophy most germane to each causal factor or motive Kern identifies five shifts in thinking about causality shifts toward increasing specificity multiplicity complexity probability and uncertainty He argues that the more researchers learned about the causes of human behavior the more they realized how much more there was to know and how little they knew about what they thought they knew The book closes by considering the revolutionary impact of quantum theory which though it influenced novelists only marginally shattered the model of causal understanding that had dominated Western thought since the seventeenth century Others have addressed changing ideas about causality in specific areas but no one has tackled a broad cultural history of this concept as does Stephen Kern in this engagingly written and lucidly argued book Routledge Encyclopedia of Narrative Theory David Herman, Manfred Jahn, Marie-Laure Ryan, 2010-06-10 The past several decades have seen an explosion of interest in narrative with this multifaceted object of inquiry becoming a central concern in a wide range of disciplinary fields and research contexts As accounts of what happened to particular people in particular circumstances and with specific consequences stories have come to be viewed as a basic human strategy for coming to terms with time process and change However the very predominance of narrative as a focus of interest across multiple disciplines makes it imperative for scholars teachers and students to have access to a comprehensive reference resource History and Causality M. Hewitson, 2014-01-22 This volume investigates the different attitudes of historians and other social scientists to questions of causality It argues that historical theorists after the linguistic turn have paid surprisingly little attention to causes in spite of the centrality of causation in many contemporary works of history Nineteenth-century French Studies , 1991 Constraining Chance Alison James, 2009-02-03 This text examines the representation and staging of chance in literature through the study of a specific case the work of the 20th century French writer Georges Perec 1936-82 Reconsidering the Postmodern Thomas Vaessens, Yra Dijk, 2025-10-01 From Michel Houellebecq to Zadie Smith from Javier Marías to Arnon Grunberg this timely study takes its reader on a tour of European literature and the critical discussion around it Despite recent declarations of postmodernism's demise contemporary literature turns out to be entangled in a discussion with postmodernism It is time to critically evaluate this legacy Twelve specialists in the national literatures sketch the outlines of the debate Turning to literature itself they find it to be searching for new values after the relativizing force of postmodernism

Modernity and Revolution in Late Nineteenth-century France Barbara T. Cooper, Mary Donaldson-Evans, 1992 New Hampshire in 1989 these essays reflect not only the broad spectrum of interests that characterizes contemporary scholarly endeavor but also the diversity of theoretical views and critical approaches that is the hallmark of late twentieth century scholarship

Literature as Social Action Pamela Currie, 1995 The clergy and professional educators were preeminent traditionalists while modernization was promoted by certain princely courts and by the lawyer administrators in their service

Repression and Expression Carrol F. Coates, 1996 Repression and Expression opens with several studies that clarify aspects of French thought and ideology from the Romantic pomp surrounding the executioner to Maurras on conspiracy Other articles examine themes and techniques in fiction and theater Balzac Hugo Flaubert the Goncourts Zola and Vall's The section on Revolutionary Pleasures focuses on modes of expression during the Directorate the July Revolution and the political banquets of 1847 The final section groups studies on themes and conventions in poetry Baudelaire Gautier Laforgue Mallarm with theoretical considerations on rhyme and the genre of the chanson

History & Historiography Glen Cunningham, 2018-08-03 Dangerous Truths and Criminal Passions Thomas DiPiero, 1992-07-01 This book challenges several traditional assumptions about the development of the French novel notably that the novel is a bourgeois art form that rose and flourished along with the rise of the bourgeoisie and that the novels of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries were inevitable stepping stones on the road to the apotheosis of realism realized in the novels of Balzac Flaubert and Zola Instead the author argues that the early French novel articulated the French aristocracy's claims to natural ascendancy against an encroaching middle class But like any other literary form the novel produces and is a product of ideology and it reveals the contradictions lying beneath the surface of an apparently seamless social structure After the death of Louis XIV and the resulting social and political redefinition of the aristocracy the ideological rifts in the novel's form enabled it to shift its class affiliations with the changing times French cultural life was increasingly tinged with values determined by new configurations in the control and transmission of property including new constraints on women's sexual behavior Fiction that claimed for itself a rightful place in the real world began to appear As it had during the seventeenth century fiction continued to negotiate complex social contradictions and label as malevolent any person or group that seemed to threaten social order notably the immoderate woman who flouted traditional conceptions of virtue and threatened to read the social fabric This new account of the rise of the French novel is enriched throughout by close readings of both well known and obscure novels including d'Urfé's L'Astre e Gomberville's Polexandre Furetière's Le Roman bourgeois Prevost's Manon Lescaut Diderot's La Religieuse and Sade's Justine Bibliographic Index ,1994 Consuming Surrealism Candice Jayne Floyd Castle,1992 A History of French Literature from the Earliest Times to the Great War William Albert Nitze,Edwin Preston Dargan,1922
