Cause Im The Mommy Thats Why:

Make-Believe Ballrooms Peter J. Smith, 1994 Dark days for Hal Andrews New York artist and scion of an eccentric New England family His cat has just died in a plunge from his apartment window His brother Beck manic depressive and hopelessly nostalgic is about to marry Lisa Lyman heiress to the Family Wipes fortune and certifiably the world s most abominable girl Their sister Fishie an Olympic swimming champion who uses her television appearances to berate Hal has recently shaved her head bald And their father is withholding Hal s inheritance until he becomes more responsible or at least until he s sixty five Hal s artwork clutters the floors of his girlfriend s apartment and does about as much for his putative gallery Hoping for a genius grant and settling for a decrepit dog and a derisive girlfriend Hal s optimism begins to wane as he descends into a moody twilit world of obscure urban horror Therefore when a wrong number from out of town walks into his life the situation is grim Mary Ann Beavers and her hostile brother arrive in New York via Greyhound in search of celebrities and success both rare commodities back home in Patent Texas She snaps her chewing gum and writes wretched poetry her brother has bad teeth and a temper to match While Mary Ann stalks Liza Minnelli in the supermarket and treasures the autograph of Dustin Hoffman s agent s sister a darkness that lasts for days falls over Hal s new but awful apartment There is light however at the end of the tunnel and Hal in spite of himself will bask in it Make Believe Ballrooms captures the true contemporary dilemma in this tale of Hal s decline and rehabilitation in much too postmodern New York

You're the First One I've Told Kathryn Whetten, Kathryn Whetten-Goldstein, Trang Quyen Nguyen, 2002 In the second wave of the HIV epidemic those with the disease are more likely than ever to be female younger heterosexual a racial minority and rural living Vital to the development of user friendly health care systems is an understanding of the vastly different lives of this second wave of HIV infected persons You're the First One I've Told offers a view into the lives of men and women infected with HIV The experiences of twenty five people living with this disease in rural eastern North Carolina serve as the foundation of this book which also draws upon unique HIV AIDS survey data collected by the authors and statistics from the Southeastern United States This combination of qualitative and quantitative information provides readers with a vivid description of how people live with HIV AIDS in the midst of their often traumatic lives and why they manage their illness in ways that seem to contradict mainstream medical and social wisdom The people interviewed represent a variety of races genders professions family lives and medical and social service access and utilization This book is the first to address a history of racism distrust of formalized medical systems homophobia trauma and their interplay with HIV treatment particularly in the South It is an indispensable read for students needing to understand health care for the disenfranchised as well as any provider policymaker or researcher involved in HIV service provision Life Goes on Jacqueline Mott, 2009 Losing Faith Niki Hershey Knisley, 2019-03-13 Faith Brooks is a typical teenaged pastor s kid until she does the unthinkable and moves in with Gabe an edgy musician and nonbeliever seemingly closing the door on her past forever After Faith abandons them the Brooks family is left to pick up the pieces unsure if they'll ever see her again While coping with Faith's unsettling desertion each family member separately wrestles with feelings of betrayal anger and fear The chaos that ensues threatens everything they have ever believed about themselves God and the world around them As Faith struggles to find her way in a scary new world without a support system her family desperately searches for the reasons why she was driven to commit such a treacherous act In losing Faith now the possibility looms that they might also lose their own Losing Faith is a compelling modern day tale of loss love and the enduring power of faith as a teenage girl escapes her reality to explore a world devoid of God's influence leaving her heartbroken family to wonder why Wake-up Call Stephen

Gregg, 2002 Seventeen year old Jim is having a really bad day After getting up the nerve to tell his girlfriend Rochelle that he loves her she asks him to help her poison her father Is she joking Just when it becomes clear that she's definitely not joking Jim's mother wakes him up It was all a dream But Mom has bad news for him Terrible news in fact As the news becomes nightmarishly bad Jim wakes up again He's back with Rochelle who tells him he fainted and Dad comes home just in time for Rochelle to offer him a big glass of suspicious looking milk Now Jim isn't sure what's real and what's a dream and every time he thinks he's got it figured out his life takes another surprising left turn A funny spooky play about the nature of reality

Wake Up Call starts as a nightmare and goes to places you'll never expect Publisher website Cause I'm the Mommy

(That's Why) Donna Black, 1995 Donna Black captures the exhaustion and exhilaration of motherhood in a way that every parent will appreciate refreshingly honest and brutally funny The Drama, 1924 Reproductive Justice, Adoption, and Foster Care Tanya Saroj Bakhru, Krista L. Benson, 2024-02-26 Understanding practices of family separation and child removal necessitates considering the impacts of globalizing capitalism colonialism empire building and the establishment and normalization of systemic racism In Reproductive Justice Adoption and Foster Care the authors situate the colonial legacies of family separation what it means to center the right parent and Reproductive Justice and transnational feminist frameworks in conversation with one another in order to elucidate a more nuanced and comprehensive approach to recognizing the significance of contemporary examples of family separation In doing so the book showcases the connections between adoption and foster care within the intellectual and activist frameworks of human rights Critical Adoption Studies Reproductive Justice and transnational feminisms Epistemologically Reproductive Justice and transnational feminisms meet at the point where both consider and interrogate globalizing capitalism neoliberal economic and political ideologies and the ways that various people mostly people of color poor people women children and Indigenous people are considered disposable Critical Adoption Studies also importantly highlights the ways that adoption and foster care function as forms of family formation and as mechanisms of globalizing capitalism and state formation Thus it is critical that any exploration of the reproductive experiences of marginalized individuals interrogate and complicate notions of choice to advocate for justice Reproductive Justice Adoption and Foster Care will be of interest to students of sociology psychology and social work as well
