Celan Studies Meridian Stanford Calif:

Utopia of Understanding Donatella Ester Di Cesare, 2012-06-28 Speaking and understanding can both be thought of as forms of translation and in this way every speaker is an exile in language even in one's mother tongue Drawing from the philosophical hermeneutics of Martin Heidegger and Hans Georg Gadamer the testimonies of the German Jews and their relation with the German language Jacques Derrida's confrontation with Hannah Arendt and the poetry of Paul Celan Donatella Ester Di Cesare proclaims Auschwitz the Babel of the twentieth century She argues that the globalized world is one in which there no longer remains any intimate place or stable dwelling Understanding becomes a kind of shibboleth that grounds nothing but opens messianically to a utopia yet to come

Celan Studies Peter Szondi, 2003 Peter Szondi's Celan Studies marked the beginning of critical work on Paul Celan the most important German poet of the second half of the twentieth century The book's three studies each concentrate on a different Celan poem The Poetry of Constancy Paul Celan's Translation of Shakespeare's Sonnet 105 investigates a historical turn from a poetry that claims to present its object to a poetry that only promises to do so Reading Engführung follows the movement of poetic language into territory undisclosed to epistemic reason Eden addresses Du liegst a poem on the murder of Rosa Luxemburg and Karl Liebknecht Szondi actually was with Celan when the poem was written It analyzes the relation between the historical facts to which a poem refers and its composition The book contains as appendixes Szondi's notes for three more projected studies of Celan poems left unwritten at the time of his death in 1971

1960 Al Filreis, 2021-10-26 In 1960 when World War II might seem to have been receding into history a number of artists and writers instead turned back to it They chose to confront the unprecedented horror and mass killing of the war searching for new creative and political possibilities after the conservatism of the 1950s in the long shadow of genocide Al Filreis recasts 1960 as a turning point to offer a groundbreaking account of postwar culture He examines an eclectic group of artistic literary and intellectual figures who strove to create a new language to reckon with the trauma of World War II and to imagine a new world Filreis reflects on the belatedness of this response to the war and the Holocaust and shows how key works linked the legacies of fascism and antisemitism with American racism In grappling with the memory of the war he demonstrates artists reclaimed the radical elements of modernism and brought forth original ideas about testimony to traumatic history 1960 interweaves the lives and works of figures across high and popular culture including Chinua Achebe Hannah Arendt James Baldwin Amiri Baraka Paul Celan John Coltrane Frantz Fanon Roberto Rossellini Muriel Rukeyser Rod Serling and Louis Zukofsky and considers art forms spanning poetry fiction memoir film painting sculpture teleplays musical theater and jazz A deeply interdisciplinary cultural literary and intellectual history this book also offers fresh perspective on the beginning of the 1960s

Homo Temporalis Nitzan Itzhak Lebovic, 2025-01-15 Homo Temporalis focuses on the importance of temporal concepts for four German Jewish thinkers who profoundly shaped twentieth century intellectual history Martin Buber Walter Benjamin Hannah Arendt and

Paul Celan By analyzing the concept of time Nitzan Lebovic explores Buber's stress on the temporality of the dialogue between I and Thou Benjamin's now time and dialectics in standstill Arendt's understanding of democracy as natality or a permanent revolution and the breathturn that informs Celan's poetry Framing the reception of German Jewish thinking in the second half of the twentieth century as a parallel story to the rise of the modern humanities Homo Temporalis also highlights how these foundational temporal concepts illuminate the causes of the present crisis in the humanities and its disciplinary limitations in the age of biopolitics and the Anthropocene Snow Part Paul Celan, 2007 Paul Celan is widely considered as one of the most important and innovative poets not only of the post World War II period but of the 20th century This text contains a complete translation of one of Celan's most elliptical and explorative compositions Towards a Critical Political Ethics Hille Haker, 2020-05-13 In her book Hille Haker pleads for a radical course correction of Catholic social ethics by focusing on three foundational concepts of social ethics human rights human dignity and moral responsibility based on the interplay of compassion solidarity and justice The author argues for a historically and politically mediated ethics that replaces the natural law ethics The theoretical reflections of the book are carried out by the practical social ethical studies The politicization of individual human rights is examined in the contexts of migration religious freedom and criminal justice Human dignity is spelled out as vulnerable agency allowing for a sharp criticism of Catholic sexual morality and neglect of women's human rights The book ends with a discussion of the relationship of political theology and political ethics and its social ethical implications for the further development of a Critical Political Ethics Germanistik, 2004 Anselm Kiefer/Paul Celan Andréa Lauterwein, 2007 The art of Anselm Kiefer is rich with references to writers philosophers and poets and his relationship with Paul Celan has been the most complex and intense of these dialogues with the past Celan's poetry inextricably linked with the memory of the Holocaust has haunted Kiefer's work for more than twenty five years and has influenced him on every level from the naming of works and exhibitions to the incorporation of symbolic materials from Celan's imagery sand straw hair and ashes into his paintings Like other German artists of his generation Kiefer began by questioning his own artistic heritage focusing on the iconographic and mythological elements of German culture that had been taken over by Nazi propaganda and subsequently repressed and buried deep in the collective unconscious It was his encounter with Celan's work in the early 1980s that first enabled him to escape from the vicious circle of fascination and disgust at the cultural ties that bound him to the Third Reich leading him to confront the subject of the Holocaust and Jewish memory as a whole and to embrace this body of traditions within his art Magnificently illustrated throughout with reproductions of Kiefer's best known works this book explores the intricate web of associations between the poet and the painter a network that is extended to embrace other artistic and literary figures such as Ingeborg Bachmann and Joseph Beuys Directory of German Studies Alan Ng, Valters Nollendorfs, 1996 Marbacher Magazin, 2004 The Stanford Alumni Directory, 2004 The Concord Saunterer, 2014 American Book Publishing Record, 2005 German Studies
