Martin Puryear John Elderfield, 2007 Over the last 30 years Martin Puryear has created a body of work that defies categorization creating sculpture that looks at identity culture history This book accompanies an exhibition at The Museum of Modern Art that follows Puryear's development from his first solo show to works being presented for the first time

Drawing from the Modern Jodi Hauptman, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2004 While art history has made room for the flurry of movements that emerged in the period following World War II the myriad artistic developments of the last thirty years have yet to be assigned firm historical categories Drawing from the Modern 1975 2005 the final installment in a series of inaugural year exhibitions produced by the Department of Drawings attempts to tell a provisional story of the years from 1975 to the present as reflected through MoMA's singular drawings collection. While making no claims to comprehensiveness, the installation details both the blossoming of different art positions on a broad international scale in this era and the coming of age of drawing as an independent and for many artists primary mode of expression. Organized chronologically and in loose clusters of artists working in the same milieu or vein of interest, the exhibition features works by more than fifty artists including Bruce Nauman, Gerhard Richter, Martin Kippenberger, Marlene Dumas, Gabriel Orozco, Kara Walker, and Luc Tuymans.

Vija Celmins Ian Alteveer, 2018-12-11 The beautiful catalogue that accompanies the critically acclaimed exhibition currently on view at the Metropolitan Museum. Best known for her striking drawings of ocean surfaces begun in 1968 and revisited over many years both in drawings and paintings, Vija Celmins b. 1938 has been creating exquisitely detailed renderings of natural imagery for more than five decades. The oceans were followed by desert floors and night skies, all subjects in which vast expansive distances are distilled into luminous, meticulous and mesmerizing small scale artworks. For Celmins, this obsessive redescribing of the world is a way to understand human consciousness in relation to lived experience. The first major publication on the artist in twenty years, this comprehensive and lavishly illustrated volume explores the full range of Celmins's work produced since the 1960s: drawings and paintings as well as sculpture and prints. Scholarly essays, a narrative chronology, and a selection of excerpts from interviews with the artist illuminate her methods and techniques, survey her early years in Los Angeles where she was part of a circle that included James Turrell and Ken Price, and trace the development of her work after she moved to New York City and befriended figures such as Robert Gober and Richard Serra.
