Lewis, Monica Apple, 2021-12-14 Monica Appleby and Helen Lewis reveal the largely untold story of women who stood up to the Church and joined Appalachians in their struggle for social justice Their poignant story of how faith compassion and persistence overcame obstacles to progress in Appalachia is a fascinating example of how a collaborative and creative learning community fosters strong voices Mountain Sisters is a prophetic first person account of the history of American Catholicism the war on poverty and the influence of the turbulent 1960s on the cultural and religious communities of Appalachia Founded in 1941 The Glenmary Sisters embraced a calling to serve rural Appalachian communities where few Catholics resided The sisters many of them seeking alternatives to the choices available to most women during this time zealously pursued their duties but soon became frustrated with the rules and restrictions of the Church Outmoded doctrine even styles of dress made it difficult for them to interact with the very people they hoped to help In 1967 after many unsuccessful attempts to persuade the Church to ease its requirements some seventy Sisters left the security of convent life Over forty of these women formed a secular service group FOCIS Federation of Communities in Service Mountain Sisters is their story A Century of Moravian Sisters Elizabeth Fetter Lehman Myers, 1918 The American Foundations of the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur , 1928 The Arms of God Sherrie Reynolds, 2011-03-21 The Arms of God is a love story in which the author weaves together the life stories of the Sisters of St Mary of Namur from their first call to religious life to teaching and mission work to a deeper sense of community during the challenging times that followed Vatican II As beautifully expressed by Sister Gabriella Falling in love with God determines if I will get up in the morning it is the WHY I am moved to do all these things am I called to do it is necessary to continue to remember and cherish our call to listen again to the language of love of the first love of what or Who drew you What gift do I give in return The Sisters journey carries them from the early days of Catholic education in Texas to Africa and the terrible years of the Rwandan genocide and to carrying God s message today in Fort Worth Texas Their intimate stories draw the reader into the Sisters lives sharing laughter in one moment and tears in the next Join these remarkable teachers nurses and missionaries as they accomplish the seemingly impossible while following the path God has placed before them Sister Patricia shares when you move from believing something to doing something uncomfortable having once done that then there s a freedom a different way of feeling a different way of understanding what might need to be done This is a timely story of love faith and freedom that challenges readers to listen for the call of God in their own lives
