Story of Narrative Preaching Mike Graves, 2015-03-02 Forty years ago the one thing that could be said about sermons was they were biblical Unfortunately they were sometimes tedious too Narrative preaching aimed to fix that advocating for a dynamic experience of the text over against a static lecture Preaching could be like the parables of Jesus intriguing and compelling The Story of Narrative Preaching is the story of seven students who are enrolled in Professor Freeman's preaching course Once a new trend narrative preaching is now older than most of them As Professor Freeman notes two things went wrong with narrative styles over time the church became biblically and theologically illiterate and the promised stress on experience didn't always measure up to the weight of the gospel Readers are invited to sit in on the class to reflect on the expositional nature of preaching and to experience the stories of some modern storytellers Flannery O'Connor Alice Walker and others to see what they might teach us about narratives of depth In the end we discover what may be the most important word in preaching You Have Time for this Mark Budman, Tom Hazuka, 2007 Love death fantasy and foreign lands told with brevity and style by the best writers in the short short fiction genre You Have Time for This satiates your craving for fine literature without making a dent in your schedule This collection takes the modern reader on fifty three literary rides each one only five hundred words or less Mark Budman and Tom Hazuka two of the top names in the genre have compiled an anthology of mini worlds as diverse as the authors who created them The World, 1997 Aspects of the Modern Short Story: English and American Alfred Charles Ward, 1924 Talking Book Topics, 2000-07
