The Catholic Digest Book of Courage Rawley Myers,1988 Faith Under Fire Matthew Archbold,2016 Common people Uncommon courage In today s culture Christians cannot look to the mainstream media to find heroes Faith Under Fire collects the stories of eighteen regular people who summoned extraordinary courage when they found themselves face to face with a world gone mad Catholic Digest and National Catholic Register columnist Matthew Archbold explores the emotional journey between decisions and consequences and the way each of these men women and children grew stronger in their personal faith while changing the world Jet ,1961-03-30 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Digest ,1894 A Courageous People from the Dolomites Boniface Bolognani,1984 St. Anthony's Almanac ,1960 Bulletin of the Public Affairs Information Service Public Affairs Information Service,1965 America's Miracle Man in Vietnam Seth Jacobs,2005-01-27 Argues that American cultural conceptions of religion and race during the 1950s played a crucial role in framing an ideology through which U S policymakers understood their options in Vietnam The Road to Renewal Jeremy BONNER,2008 The Road to Renewal offers an important contribution to the study of Catholicism in the 1960s Grounded in thorough archival research the book breaks new ground in its examination of the implementation of Vatican II at the diocesan level The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1990

John Kennedy James MacGregor Burns,2016-03-29 The authorized biography of John F Kennedy offers a fresh and candid look at what shaped the man America came to love and admire just as he was on the cusp of the presidency Historian political scientist and Pulitzer Prize winning author James MacGregor Burns wrote Roosevelt The Lion and the Fox the first volume of his highly acclaimed biography of FDR in 1956 Two years later Burns ran for a seat in Congress and became close friends with John F Kennedy who was also campaigning throughout the state for reelection to the Senate After Burns lost his election he decided to write a biography of JFK Without any restrictions Kennedy granted his friend complete access to files family records and personal correspondence The two men spoke at great length in Washington DC and at the Kennedy family compound on Cape Cod and afterwards Kennedy asked his relatives friends and political colleagues to talk openly with Burns as well The result is a frank incisive and compelling portrait of Kennedy from his youth to his service in World War II and his time in Congress While many political biographies especially those of presidential candidates intend to depict a certain persona Burns would not allow anything other than his own perception to influence him And so John Kennedy concludes questioning whether JFK would make a commitment not only of mind but of heart to the great challenges that lay ahead Burns would later admit that his subject did bring both bravery and wisdom to his presidency First published just as Kennedy was coming into the national spotlight this biography gives a straightforward and exciting portrayal of one of the twentieth century s most important figures Saving Big Ben John Satterfield,2011-04-15 Father Joe O Callahan S J was the unlikeliest war hero A bespectacled math professor from Holy Cross he became the U S Navy s first Jesuit chaplain in World

War II and served in combat operations in the Atlantic and Pacific theaters Father O Callahan was on the aircraft carrier Franklin known as Big Ben in the Okinawa campaign in early 1945 when massive explosions and fire from a kamikaze bomb attack nearly destroyed his ship Hundreds of sailors died within moments of the attack and the Franklin lay dead in the water drifting toward Japan just 60 miles distant As flames consumed the carrier the chaplain organized and led fire fighting crews and prevented a potentially fatal explosion while ministering to injured dying and terrified sailors Father O Callahan s deeds were instrumental in saving the Franklin and he stayed with the ship on its voyage under power to New York Harbor The carrier s captain called him the bravest man I ever saw and Father Joe became the first American military chaplain to receive the Medal of Honor the nation s highest decoration for valor But the price of glory was high for Father O Callahan He suffered a stroke after returning to Holy Cross and spent the rest of his life enduring incapacitating pain Through it all the priest displayed the same leadership and strength derived from unwavering faith that enabled him to help save his ship and comrades The book incorporates primary sources interviews with Franklin survivors and O Callahan family members and other materials never before published including documentation of the Navy s review of Father O Callahan s recommendation of the Medal of Honor and the process leading to the priest s receipt of the decoration Grandfather Stories Patrick S C Tan,2025-07-02 Grandfather Stories is a vivid account of Patrick Tan s eventful life from a childhood of poverty to an illustrious career in the police force and subsequent careers in hospitality and tourism and training It tells the story of this Pioneer Citizen s journey that parallels Singapore s development from Third World to First and is illustrated with photographs and news clippings More Pioneer Citizens should be encouraged by Patrick s example to record their stories for future generations of Singaporeans Chua Mui Hoong Former Straits Times Associate Editor The Literary Digest ,1915
