Catholic Ethicists On Hiv Aids Prevention:

Catholic Ethicists on HIV/AIDS Prevention James F. Keenan, Jon Fuller, Lisa Sowle Cahill, Kevin T. Kelly, 2000-05-01 An eye opening demonstration of how Catholic moral theology works in the concrete Keenan shows that the Catholic tradition of moral theology is robust timely supple humane and most of all wise enough to make vital contributions to ongoing global discussions about the current state of the Body of Christ National Catholic Reporter Calling for Justice Throughout the World Mary Jo Iozzio, Mary M. Doyle Roche, Elsie M. Miranda, 2008-01-01 Roman Catholic women theologians from all over the world discuss the HIV AIDS pandemic in terms of their particular geographical and social location Towards a Critical Political Ethics Hille Haker, 2020-05-13 In her book Hille Haker pleads for a radical course correction of Catholic social ethics by focusing on three foundational concepts of social ethics human rights human dignity and moral responsibility based on the interplay of compassion solidarity and justice The author argues for a historically and politically mediated ethics that replaces the natural law ethics The theoretical reflections of the book are carried out by the practical social ethical studies The politicization of individual human rights is examined in the contexts of migration religious freedom and criminal justice Human dignity is spelled out as vulnerable agency allowing for a sharp criticism of Catholic sexual morality and neglect of women s human rights The book ends with a discussion of the relationship of political theology and political ethics and its social ethical implications for the further development of a Critical Political Ethics Ethics and AIDS Kenneth R. Overberg, 2006 HIV AIDS continues to devastate the lives of individuals and families communities and countries A growing numbness about HIV AIDS however infects many people Many fail to recognize that the AIDS epidemic is still getting worse now spreading rapidly in the world s most populous countries To help raise and renew consciousness about this threat to the world Ethics and AIDS Compassion and Justice in Global Crisis summarizes the basics of the AIDS epidemic and presents key themes insights based on the Hebrew and Christian scriptures This ethical perspective is the result of decades of dialogue among Roman Catholics and other Christians building on the strengths of the various traditions This book offers a Christian view with special emphasis on Roman Catholic thought many of its ethical insights however can be shared by other faith traditions and by all people who desire to respond to the AIDS pandemic Diverse Voices in Modern US Moral Theology Charles E. Curran, 2019-02-15 In Charles E Curran s latest book Diverse Voices in Modern US Moral Theology he presents the diverse voices of US Catholic moral theologians from the mid twentieth century to the present The book discusses eleven key individuals in the development and evolution of moral theology as well as the New Wine New Wineskins movement This diversity which differs from the monolithic understanding of moral theology that prevailed until recently comes from the diverse historical circumstances or Sitz im Leben of the authors Each of these theologians developed her or his approach in light of these circumstances and in response to shifts in the three audiences of moral theology the Church the academy and the broader society By exploring this diversity Curran recognizes the deep divisions that exist within Catholic moral theology between the so called liberal and conservative approaches and acknowledges the need for greater dialogue between them providing a deeper understanding of the methods and approaches of these significant figures This new book from a major figure in the field will be an important resource for students and scholars of US Catholic moral theology and for anyone seeking to understand the current state of moral theology in America today Transformational Leadership Sanders, Annmarie, IHM, 2015-09-01 In 2009 the Leadership Conference of Women Religious LCWR an organization representing 300 orders of sisters in the United States suddenly gained wide attention following a critical doctrinal assessment issued by the Vatican's Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith Many became interested in the way the LCWR and its members exercised leadership One of their members described it as transformational leadership a way of being in the world To better understand this way of leadership LCWR regularly conducts interviews with some of the most engaging and passionate of contemporary thinkers In this volume of interviews eighteen theologians psychologists educators and religious leaders from various fields and disciplines share their wisdom about a way of leadership able to meet the deep challenges of today's world Transformational Leadership offers the opportunity to learn from notables such as Walter Brueggemann Judy Cannato Joan Chittister OSB Constance FitzGerald OCD Donald Goergen OP Marty Linsky and Margaret Wheatley Transformational Leadership although originally addressed to American Catholic sisters provides thoughtful and practical suggestions for living a Gospel centered life and its unique collection of personalities and insight makes it of interest to all men and women seeking to live and lead with purpose and depth The World's Religions after September 11 Arvind Sharma, 2008-11-30 This set is an unprecedented examination of religion's influence on modern life an honest assessment of how religion can either destroy us or preserve us and a thorough exploration of what steps might be necessary for all religions to join together as a force for good Convening on the fifth anniversary of the terrorist attack on the World Trade Center the global congress The World's Religions after September 11 explored the negative and positive possibilities of the religious dimensions of life The presentations from the congress have been pulled together in this set which addresses religion's intersection with human rights spirituality science healing the media international diplomacy globalization war and peace and more This comprehensive set includes contributions from such well known scholars of religion as Arvind Sharma and a host of others from all the world's religious traditions This set is an unprecedented examination of religion's influence on modern life an honest assessment of how religion can either destroy us or preserve us and a thorough exploration of what steps might be necessary for all religions to join together as a force for good Because of the attack on the World Trade Center on September 11 2001 the very concept of religion underwent a paradigm shift Instead of standing for virtue and piety peace and harmony the word religion also came to be inextricably associated with evil aggression and terror People around the world began to question whether the religious and secular dimensions of modern life can be reconciled whether the different religions of the world can ever coexist in harmony Indeed the very future of religion itself has sometimes seemed to be uncertain or at least suspect Catholic ethicist on HIV/AIDS prevention James F. Keenan, Jon Fuller, Kevin Kelly, Lisa Sowle Cahill, 2001

Modern Moral Problems William Smith, 2012-10-08 Modern Moral Problems addresses moral quandaries that can beguile and confuse faithful Catholics. Written in a question and answer format, the book covers questions regarding sexuality, medical ethics, business practices, civic responsibilities, and the sacramental life of the Church. The extraordinary assortment of issues forming a single organized collection is a valuable reference for anyone seeking clear and concise answers to tough moral questions. Written in a conversational tone, often spliced with humor, this work by a highly respected moral theologian will be read with fascination for its clarity of argument and fundamental good sense. Originally published as a monthly question and answer column in a magazine for priests, these selections by Msgr William B Smith retain a striking current topicality. Msgr Smith often tackled matters of controversy in the Catholic Church, ones which continue to draw conflicting opinions. Interesting, informative, and eminently practical, this book conveys an overall impression that sound thinking about morality is rooted in a tradition within the Catholic Church, even when the answers to particular moral questions cannot be found in catechisms or Vatican documents. Msgr Smith offers a clear-headed approach to the quandaries of our time precisely because of his training in traditional moral principles and his fidelity to the Catholic magisterium. This book should be in the possession of all seminarians and priests who are bound to confront moral matters that are not so easily decided at first glance. But lay people too will find here rich responses to the challenging and sometimes unresolved moral questions they encounter in their own lives.

When God's People Have HIV/AIDS Maria Cimperman, 2005. Maria Cimperman, an Ursuline sister, teaches moral theology and social ethics at the Oblate School of Theology in San Antonio, Texas.

Christianity and the State in Asia Julius Bautista, Francis Khok Gee Lim, 2009-09-11. This book examines how Christians in Asia express their religion under the spectre of the nation-state and processes of globalization. Considering Christianity's growing prominence and the various ways Asian nation-states respond to this growth, this book brings into sharper analytical focus the ways in which the faith is articulated at the local, regional, and global level.

HIV and AIDS Michael J. Kelly, 2006. Christian Ethics and HIV/AIDS in Africa, 2007.

A Holistic Approach to HIV and AIDS in Africa Marco Moerschbacher, 2008. During the 15th Plenary Assembly that took place in Uganda in June 2005, Bishops of the Association of Member Episcopal Conferences in Eastern Africa (AMECEA) came out with a common framework of responding to the challenges of HIV/AIDS in the region. The call was to increase efforts of fighting the pandemic by using the values found in the Gospel and in the Church's social teachings.

Applied Ethics in a World Church Linda Hogan, 2008. Dealing with such issues as globalization, gender, and AIDS, these essays by moral theologians demonstrate the creativity, dynamism, and diversity of the Catholic moral tradition as it proceeds from local cultures, opens itself to cross-cultural conversations, and progresses in a spirit of mercy and care.

Catholic Moral Theology in the United States Charles E. Curran, 2008. In this magisterial volume, Charles E. Curran surveys the historical development of Catholic moral theology in the United States from its 19th century roots to the present day He begins by tracing the development of pre Vatican II moral theology that with the exception of social ethics had the limited purpose of training future confessors to know what actions are sinful and the degree of sinfulness Curran then explores and illuminates the post Vatican II era with chapters on the effect of the Council on the scope and substance of moral theology the impact of Humanae vitae Pope Paul VI s encyclical condemning artificial contraception fundamental moral theology sexuality and marriage bioethics and social ethics Curran s perspective is unique For nearly 50 years he has been a major influence on the development of the field and has witnessed first hand the dramatic increase in the number and diversity of moral theologians in the academy and the Church No one is more qualified to write this first and only comprehensive history of Catholic moral theology in the United States Ethical Approaches to Population, Poverty, and Conflict Stan D'Souza,2004 Contributed papers presented at the 2nd Colloquium on Population and Ethics with Special Reference to Islam held in 2003 at Cairo Bulletin for Contextual Theology in Southern Africa & Africa ,2000 New Catholic Encyclopedia Supplement 2009 Robert L.
