

A Guide To Catholic Funeral Etiquette

Catholics believe that following death, they'll leave their physical life & enter the afterlife. It's a thought that a person's soul may go to heaven, hell or purgatory, relying on the actions of the individuals in their physical life. Usually, a priest is called when a person is about to pass away so that they can direct Holy Communication & do other catholic funeral rituals to the individual prior to death.

How long does a catholic funeral last?

The duration of a catholic funeral will generally rely on whether or not there's a funeral mass. A Catholic funeral service without mass may take nearly forty minutes. A funeral with mass could take at least 1 hour. The rituals which may happen at the ceremony will generally last about twenty minutes.
