Catholics Protestants And Salvation:

Bible Conversations: Catholic-Protestant Dialogues on the Bible, Tradition, and Salvation Dave Armstrong, 2007-04-27

Fifteen dialogues loosely based on encounters of a Catholic apologist with Protestants over the course of nearly five years of Internet discussions on lists bulletin boards and private correspondence The most important and fundamental issues that divide Protestants and Catholics are dealt with the relationship of Bible and tradition the authority of the Church whether the Church and tradition can be infallible like the Bible how one is saved the relationship of faith and works whether Catholics believe in salvation by works grace alone etc Catholics, Protestants and Salvation Pauline Zingleman, 2001

Beyond the Salvation Wars Matthew W. Bates, 2025-03-11 God has provided salvation but when does it begin What is required of us Can we lose it These and other disputed questions have divided Christians for centuries Matthew W Bates has already shown that the gospel is about King Jesus and that faith includes allegiance In Beyond the Salvation Wars he unpacks additional truths from the Bible and the early church to describe how salvation happens Bates offers a new model encouraging Protestants and Catholics toward long term unity But his proposal contains strong medicine it doesn't sugarcoat current Protestant and Catholic errors but diagnoses with precision for the future health of the church By using accessible writing and stories Bates shows what Scripture teaches about baptism election regeneration assurance and justification A companion to his previous book Gospel Allegiance What Faith in Jesus Misses for Salvation in Christ this book will appeal to those who want to discover core truths about how we are saved for their personal journey as well as for final Christian unity A discussion guide with questions for classes and groups will be available Justification by Faith in

Catholic-Protestant Dialogue Anthony N. S. Lane, 2006-06-10 In this assessment of the recent Catholic Protestant dialogue concerning the doctrine of justification Anthony Lane begins by discussing traditional Protestant doctrine with close reference to Calvin and traditional Catholic doctrine with close reference to the Council of Trent He goes on to examine eight key documents from Hans Kung's Justification 1957 to the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification 1999 Fifteen key theological issues are then explored These include the status of theological language used by Catholics and Evangelicals the definition of justification the grounds on which a person is accounted righteous the question of sin remaining in the Christian whether faith alone can save the relationship between law and gospel the question of merit and reward the assurance of salvation and finally a discussion on the Roman Magisterium and current Evangelical responses to recent changes in Catholic theology In conclusion Anthony Lane discusses the extent to which any agreement or convergence of thinking has been achieved and its future significance Justification by Faith in Catholic-Protestant Dialogue Anthony N. S. Lane, 2006-08-15 In this assessment of the recent Catholic Protestant dialogue concerning the doctrine of justification Anthony Lane begins by discussing traditional Protestant doctrine with close reference to Calvin and traditional Catholic doctrine with close reference to the Council of Trent He goes on to examine eight key documents from Hans Kung's Justification 1957 to the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification 1999 Fifteen key theological issues are then explored These include the status of theological language used by Catholics and Evangelicals the definition of justification the grounds on which a person is accounted righteous the question of sin remaining in the Christian whether faith alone can save the relationship between law and gospel the question of merit and reward the assurance of salvation and finally a discussion on the Roman Magisterium and current Evangelical responses to recent changes in Catholic theology In conclusion Anthony Lane discusses the extent to which any agreement or convergence of thinking has been achieved and its future significance

The Salvation Controversy James Akin, 2001 There are times when you just know as if by instinct and often before you are able to say exactly why that an argument you are hearing is fatally flawed it gives off something like the hollow thunk of cheap glass But then there are those rare and precious times when you read a book or an article and find there is no mistaking This is the real thing At the banquet table of apologetics James Akin's The Salvation Controversy is the finest of fine crystal Questions relating to salvation especially faith versus works but also penance purgatory indulgences and free cooperation with God's grace have been sore points in the dialogue between Catholics and Protestants Mr Akin knows and respects the Protestant tradition in which he was raised and the Catholicism he has come to embrace He is not about to falsify either or to pretend that crucial differences do not exist But he is also unwilling to allow theological slogans such as faith alone to distract us from significant points of agreement His method is to follow Scripture and Tradition wherever they lead and he is formidably equipped for the task with honesty clarity of mind and an abundance of logical skill Book jacket

Salvation Outside the Church? Francis A. Sullivan, 2002-09-03 When in 1949 Fr Leonard Feeney SJ accused the Archbishop of Boston Richard J Cushing of heresy for holding that Jews and Protestants could be saved he backed up his charge by producing passages from the writings of fathers of the church such as St Augustine of eminent theologians such as St Thomas Aquinas and from the decrees of popes and councils to prove that it was a dogma of faith that there is no salvation outside the Catholic Church He did seem to have the weight of evidence on his side and it was not easy to see how the modern idea that non Catholics can be saved could be reconciled with the church's traditional doctrine that excluded them from salvation Many in the Catholic Church have felt that while Feeney must surely have been wrong the questions he raised were never satisfactorily answered Is it really a dogma of Catholic faith that there is no salvation outside the church Can the optimism of Vatican II about the universal possibility of salvation be defended as an example of homogeneous development of doctrine Or would it be more honest to say that the Catholic Church has recognized that its previous teaching was mistaken The author is convinced that the only way to answer such questions is by a thorough study of the history of Christian thought about the salvation of those outside the church Rev Sullivan makes this historical study a lively reading experience while drawing conclusions that will impact ecumenical thinking for years to come

The Drama of Salvation Jimmy Akin, 2015-04-01 Where Will You Spend Eternity The drama of salvation involves every man woman and child on earth In this life all of us are suspended between heaven and hell Few people understand what Jesus did or how it affects us Worse yet there are endless squabbles between Christians of different persuasions leading to confusion on a massive scale In this book Jimmy Akin uses his expertise in Scripture and Church teaching to cut through the confusion and provide clear answers on important issues like What we need to do to be saved Whether salvation is a one time event or a process Whether penance is part of God's plan What indulgences are How faith and works relate What the Church teaches about justification How far apart Protestants and Catholics are on this question Whether you have to be a Catholic or a Christian to be saved No other book takes on these questions with the clarity and precision that Akin brings to them and the answer will affect you and those you love forever Catholic and Protestant Frederick Joseph Kinsman, 1913 The Catholic Ethic and the Spirit of Community John E.
