Catos Tears And The Making Of Anglo American Emotion:

Cato's Tears and the Making of Anglo-American Emotion Julie Ellison, 1999-12-15 In this ambitious account of a much expanded Age of Sensibility Julie Ellison traces the evolution of the politics of emotion on both sides of the Atlantic from the late 17th to the early 19th century

Masculinity and Emotion in Early Modern English Literature Jennifer C. Vaught, 2008 Offering new readings of works by Shakespeare Spenser and their contemporaries this study examines the profound impact of the cultural shift in the English aristocracy from feudal warriors to emotionally expressive courtiers or gentlemen on all kinds of men in early modern English literature Jennifer Vaught traces the gradual emergence of men of feeling during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries to the blossoming of this literary version of manhood during the eighteenth century

The history of emotions Rob Boddice, 2024-02-13 This book introduces students and professional historians to the main areas of concern in the history of emotions and its intersection with emotion research in other disciplines It discusses how the emotions intersect with other lines of historical research relating to power practice society and morality The revised and fully updated second edition of the book demonstrates the field's centrality to historiographical practice as well as the importance of this kind of historical work for general interdisciplinary understandings of the value and the meaning of human experience

Emotions and War S. Downes, A. Lynch, K. O'Loughlin, 2016-02-03 This volume addresses the place of the emotions in literary representations of war across six centuries of European history It challenges modern assumptions about the passions and feelings attending violent conflict in order to reveal the multifarious historical emotions and emotional histories of war

Women Writing the English Republic, 1625-1681 Katharine Gillespie, 2017-04-07 Scholars have fiercely debated the causes of the English Civil Wars and the rise of anti-monarchical and republican thought a century before the American Revolution This ambitious and highly original book is the first to argue that women played a significant role in formulating and enacting English republican precepts Even as feminists contend that republicanism's division of the private from the public sphere excluded women from political power Gillespie demonstrates how seventeenth-century Englishwomen articulated republicanism's key insight meaningful action political or otherwise does and should take place outside the purview of government in spheres that not only include women but that women helped construct Drawing on the works of six women writers of the period the book examines their writings and explores the key themes and concepts that they build upon

Spaces for Feeling Susan Broomhall, 2015-03-05 Spaces for Feeling explores how English and Scottish people experienced sociabilities and socialities from 1650 to 1850 and investigates their operation through emotional practices and particular spaces The collection highlights the forms practices and memberships of these varied spaces for feeling in this two hundred year period and charts the shifting conceptualisations of emotions that underpinned them The authors employ historical literary and visual history approaches to analyse a series of literary and art works emerging forms of print media such as pamphlet propaganda newspapers and periodicals and familial and personal sources such as letters in order to tease out how particular communities were shaped and cohered through distinct emotional practices in specific spaces of feeling This collection studies the function of emotions in group formations in Britain during a period that has attracted widespread scholarly interest in the creation and meaning of sociabilities in particular From clubs and societies to families and households essays here examine how emotional practices could sustain particular associations create new social communities and disrupt the capacity of a specific cohort to operate successfully This timely collection will be essential reading for students and scholars of the history of emotions The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2001 Wounded Hearts Jennifer Travis,2005 Wounded Hearts Masculinity Law and Literature in American Culture The Arizona Quarterly ,2011 Legacy ,2007 NWSA Journal ,2000 Publishing the Family June Howard,2001-10-03 Interweaves literary and publishing histories around the collaborative novel THE WHOLE FAMILY in order to explore categories of readers and writers in the U S during the first two decades of the twentieth century

Critical Survey of Drama: Kobo Abe - Albert Camus Carl Edmund Rollyson, Frank Northen Magill,2003 Combines updates and expands two earlier Salem Press reference sets Critical survey of drama Rev ed English language series published in 1994 and Critical survey of drama Foreign language series published in 1986 This new 8 vol set contains 602 essays of which 538 discuss individual dramatists and 64 cover broad overview topics The dramatist profiles contain more than 310 photographs and drawings The Eighteenth-century Novel Susan Spencer, Margo Collins, Albert J. Rivero, George Justice, Kit Kincade,2001 Eleven contributions from American and British academics explore some of the 18th century s best known novels as well as some more obscure pieces The first three articles were written to honor the memory of Everett Zimmermann U of California Santa Barbara and draw extensively on his scholarship Other topics include for example how Henry Fie The Geographic Revolution in Early America Martin Brückner,2006 Geographic Revolution in Early America Maps Literacy and National Identity Masculinities in Politics and War Stefan Dudink, Karen Hagemann, John Tosh,2004 Politics and war are crucial to the history of masculinity yet have been neglected in the emergent historiography of masculinity This book opens up new avenues in gender history by mapping masculinity s part in making revolution waging war building nations and constructing welfare states Preceded by extensive historical and theoretical introductions the volume is clearly divided into sections on revolution nation politics and subjectivity An innovative collection with contributions from an international group of eminent historians who are recognised experts in their fields with essays on Europe the United States Latin America Australia Africa and Asia Written in a highly accessible style targeted at both students professional historians and the interested general reader Michigan Quarterly Review ,1999 Reading the Middle Generation Anew Eric Haralson,2006-05 Ten original essays by advanced scholars and well published poets address the middle generation of American poets including the familiar Robert Lowell Elizabeth Bishop Randall Jarrell and John Berryman and various important contemporaries Delmore Schwartz Theodore Roethke Robert Hayden and Lorine

Niedecker This was a famously troubled cohort of writers for reasons both personal and cultural and collectively their poems give us powerful moving insights into American social life in the transforming decades of the 1940s through the 1960s In addition to having worked during the broad middle of the last century these poets constitute the center of twentieth century American poetry in the larger sense refuting invidious connotations of middle as coming after the great moderns and being superseded by a proliferating postmodern experimentation This middle generation mediates the so called American century and its prodigious body of poetry even as it complicates historical and aesthetic categorizations Taking diverse formal and thematic angles on these poets deconstructionist biographical historical and more formalist accounts this book re examines their between ness and ambivalence their various positionings and repositionings in aesthetic political and personal matters The essays study the interplay between these writers and such shifting formations as religious discourse consumerism militarism and war the ideology of America as nature s nation and U S race relations and ethnic conflicts Reading the Middle Generation Anew also shows the legacy of the middle generation the ways in which their lives and writings continue to be a shaping force in American poetry This fresh and invigorating collection will be of great interest to literary scholars and poets

Phillis Wheatley's Poetics of Liberation John C. Shields, 2008 In this volume John C Shields demonstrates that much of the negative response to Phillis Wheatley s writings has been based on false assumptions and myths about her and her work Much of this criticism began more than a century ago and has been passed on without dissent by generations of readers Here Shields sets a course for Wheatley scholars that will redefine the direction of future writing about her Shields provides new readings for a great many of her poems He shows that Wheatley s writing was deeply imbedded in several literary traditions demonstrating that her work is the result of an African inheritance a complex relationship with a Congregationalist religious heritage and an intense involvement with classical literature Read closely Wheatley s works show she deserves credit for creating a liberationist aesthetic the full implications of which are still to be worked out From publisher s description The Indian Chief as Tragic Hero Gordon Mitchell Sayre, 2005 Indian Chief as Tragic Hero Native Resistance and the Literatures of America from Moctezuma to Tecumseh
