William Forde

Cats Of Kilkenny:

The Cats of Kilkenny Nathan Zimelman, 1972 Michael Muldoon finds he cannot stop the town cats from singing but he can stop himself from being annoyed with them

The Kilkenny Cat William Forde, 2002-01-01

The Kilkenny Cat - Book One William Forde, Mr. Punch's Victorian Era E. J. Milliken, 1888 Mr. Punch's Victorian Era Punch (London, England), 1888

The Kilkenny Cat - Book One William Forde, Joel Stephen Breeze, 2014-11-25 This author's works have been praised by numerous celebrities the most notable being Nelson Mandela who described two of his African stories as Wonderful the late Princess Diana who used to read two of his books to the Princes William and Harry when they were aged 9 and 7 years and a former Chief Inspector of Schools for The Office for Standards in Education Children's Services and Skills OFSTED who described the author's writing to the press as being of High quality literature

The Kilkenny Cat has been written as a trilogy Book One deals with the theme of truth Book Two with justice and Book Three on the theme of freedom All three books seek to show that truth justice or freedom cannot exist in isolation and that the only way one can experience any one of them is when one is able to experience all three Book One is set in the country of Ireland the land of my birth Book Two in Jamaica and Ireland both countries I know well with Book Three being predominantly set in Northern England the place where I have lived for most of my life

The trilogy is designed to show that every country on the face of the Earth exercises discrimination against some of its citizens The nature of discrimination may subtly change and vary from one country and situation to another in both shape and form but it will always be present in some degree for those of us who care to look Particular forms of discrimination looked at in this trilogy include the issues of colour race religion age culture sexism disability homophobia gypsies asylum seekers refugees and economic migrants These issues are looked at through the eyes of travelling cats whose experiences mirror those of human society

Overarching all the themes of this trilogy is the issue of Good versus Evil where the terms God and Satan are used to denote opposing values qualities and lifestyles The speech of the cat characters who come from Jamaica is distinguished from the speech used by non Jamaican cats by changing the word you to ya and its linguistic associates and no attempt has been made to replicate the patois more commonly used by many Jamaican citizens

Book One is set in Ireland and serves to introduce the heroine TKC along with the book's major characters in the trilogy and its most prominent themes The first half of Book One is devoted to TKC's kitten year of life The sudden switch of content and tone in the second half of Book One to that of a more violent format has been done deliberately to sharply reflect the marked contrast between childhood and adult years between being protected in a family setting by loving parents to having to fend for oneself in a hostile environment of rampant discrimination desolation and destruction

The Kilkenny Cat Trilogy is an allegorical story of all manner of discrimination practised throughout the world and particularly in Ireland Jamaica and England Told through the eyes and experiences of travelling gypsy cats it is a must for all cat lovers and students of the discrimination the Northern Riots Ireland Jamaica and Northern England and Good v Evil It is suitable for
