Blue Cats ,2007-05 There are no blue cats in Blue Cats but there are a number of intriguing local cats living their lives in the blue and white milieu of Greek villages on the islands of Santorini Rhodes and Antiparos poised high over the waters of the Mediterranean Sea This coherent series of 28 images begins with cats enclosed in small rectilinear spaces a picket fence a window ledge a thicket of chairs out to the whitewashed curved and sculpted walls and alleys of Greek villages to the pillars roofs and chimneys where they become part of the sky perching at dizzying heights above the azure sea The photoessay concludes with a sequence of three jumps over a gate off a wall and finally off the page Laid out gallery style the book is clean and spare Shades of blue predominate each image on its own page surrounded by white as if on the wall of a gallery The lush colors the humor and the sense of huge expanse combine to give an uplifting sense of joy and warmth
