The Catskills Kenneth Myers, 1987      The International Studio, 1919      Painting Dissent Sophie Lynford, 2022-09-20 A revelatory history of the first artist collective in the United States and its effort to reshape nineteenth century art culture and politics The American Pre Raphaelites founded a uniquely interdisciplinary movement composed of politically radical abolitionist artists and like minded architects critics and scientists Active during the Civil War this dynamic collective united in a spirit of protest seeking sweeping reforms of national art and culture Painting Dissent recovers the American Pre Raphaelites from the margins of history and situates them at the center of transatlantic debates about art slavery education and politics Artists such as Thomas Charles Farrer and John Henry Hill championed a new style of landscape painting characterized by vibrant palettes antipicturesque compositions and meticulous brushwork Their radicalism however was not solely one of style Sophie Lynford traces how the American Pre Raphaelites proclaimed themselves catalysts of a wide ranging reform movement that staged politically motivated interventions in multiple cultural arenas from architecture and criticism to collecting exhibition design and higher education She examines how they publicly rejected their prominent contemporaries the artists known as the Hudson River School and how they offered incisive critiques of antebellum society by importing British models of landscape theory and practice Beautifully illustrated and drawing on a wealth of archival material Painting Dissent transforms our understanding of how American artists depicted the nation during the most turbulent decades of the nineteenth century      The Catskill Mountains and the Region Around Charles Rockwell, Thomas Cole, 1873      Picturesque Catskills, Green County Richard Lionel De Lisser, 1894      Guide to the Catskills and the Region Around Arthur G. National Park Service, 2004      The Studio Reader Mary Jane Jacob, Michelle Grabner, 2010-06-15 The image of a tortured genius working in near isolation has long dominated our conceptions of the artist s studio Examples abound think Jackson Pollock dripping resin on a cicada carcass in his shed in the Hamptons But times have changed ever since Andy Warhol declared his art space a factory artists have begun to envision themselves as the leaders of production teams and their sense of what it means to be in the studio has altered just as dramatically as their practices The Studio Reader pulls back the curtain from the art world to reveal the real activities behind artistic production What does it mean to be in the studio What is the space of the studio in the artist s practice How do studios help artists envision their agency and beyond that their own lives This forward thinking anthology features an all star array of contributors ranging from Svetlana Alpers Bruce Nauman and Robert Storr to Daniel Buren Carolee Schneemann and Buzz Spector each of whom locates the studio both spatially and conceptually at the center of an art world that careens across institutions markets and disciplines A companion for anyone engaged with the spectacular sites of art at its making The Studio Reader reconsiders this crucial space as an actual way of being that illuminates our understanding of both artists and the world they inhabit      The Catskills Arthur G.
