The Migration-Displacement Nexus Khalid Koser, Susan Martin, 2011-09-01 The migration displacement nexus is a new concept intended to capture the complex and dynamic interactions between voluntary and forced migration both internally and internationally Besides elaborating a new concept this volume has three main purposes the first is to focus empirical attention on previously understudied topics such as internal trafficking and the displacement of foreign nationals using case studies including Afghanistan and Iraq the second is to highlight new challenges including urban displacement and the effects of climate change and the third is to explore gaps in current policy responses and elaborate alternatives for the future

Communal Violence, Forced Migration and the State Sanjeevini Badigar Lokhande, 2016-10-13 When violence occurs in democracies it is often characterized as an aberration The state that saw human rights violations and failure of law and order in Gujarat in 2002 emerged even if by its own admission as a model for good governance Communal Violence Forced Migration and the State through an account of displaced Muslims challenges this notion Through the unlikely yet probing lens of displacement it offers fresh insight into communal violence and is an important resource for the emerging domain of forced migration and the changing nature of the state in a globalized world

Living in Limbo Steven B. Holtzman, 2004-01-01 Annotation This title analyzes the multifaceted nature of impoverishment and vulnerability which emerges from long periods of conflict induced displacement It reviews the situation of displaced in the context of a wide range of measures of vulnerability including material well being employment shelter human and social capital and concludes that significant vulnerability remains even after many years of displacement

Food and Sustainability in the Twenty-First Century Paul Collinson, Iain Young, Lucy Antal, Helen Macbeth, 2019-06-06 Sustainability is one of the great problems facing food production today Using cross disciplinary perspectives from international scholars working in social cultural and biological anthropology ecology and environmental biology this volume brings many new perspectives to the problems we face Its cross disciplinary framework of chapters with local regional and continental perspectives provides a global outlook on sustainability issues These case studies will appeal to those working in public sector agencies NGOs consultancies and other bodies focused on food security human nutrition and environmental sustainability

Forced Migration in the Feminist Imagination Anna Ball,2021-09-21 Forced Migration in the Feminist Imagination explores how feminist acts of imaginative expression community building scholarship and activism create new possibilities for women experiencing forced migration in the twenty first century Drawing on literature film and art from a range of transnational contexts including Europe the Middle East Central America Australia and the Caribbean this volume reveals the hitherto unrecognised networks of feminist alliance being formulated across borders while reflecting carefully on the complex politics of cross cultural feminist solidarity The book presents a variety of cultural case studies that each reveal a different context in which the transcultural feminist imagination can be seen to operate from the maternal feminism of literary journalism confronting the European refugee crisis to Iran s female film directors building creative collaborations with displaced Afghan women and from artists employing sonic creativities in order to listen to women in U K and Australian detention to LGBTQ poets and video artists articulating new forms of queer feminist community against the backdrop of the hostile environment This is an essential read for scholars in Women s and Gender Studies Feminist and Postcolonial Literary and Cultural Studies and Comparative Literary Studies as well as for those operating in the fields of Gender and Development Studies and Forced Migration Studies

Ethnic Politics in Burma Ashley South,2008-06-30 This book considers the conflict and civil war that has ravaged Burma and considers the implications that conflict has had for Burma s development and prospects for democratization

Gender in Georgia Maia Barkaia,Alisse Waterston,2017-10-01 As Georgia seeks to reinvent itself as a nation state in the post Soviet period Georgian women are maneuvering adjusting resisting and transforming the new economic social and political order In Gender in Georgia editors Maia Barkaia and Alisse Waterston bring together an international group of feminist scholars to explore the socio political and cultural conditions that have shaped gender dynamics in Georgia from the late 19th century to the present In doing so they provide the first ever woman centered collection of research on Georgia offering a feminist critique of power in its many manifestations and an assessment of women s political agency in Georgia
