Causes Of Development Interdisciplinary Perspectives:

Causes of Development George Butterworth, Peter Bryant, 1990 The question of what causes human development is a difficult one for scientists Causal processes have been suggested at the genetic the embryological the evolutionary and the social and cultural levels but there has been little attempt to discover any common principles among different types of developmental explanations Twelve highly respected scholars whose research in the field of development has received international acclaim tackle this complex issue in a stimulating and original book They write from the perspectives of cognitive developmental psychology developmental biology ethology embryology social psychology and computer science each of which offers the reader a different insight into the question

Precursors and Causes in Development and Psychopathology Dale F. Hay, Adrian Angold, 1993-06-22 International researchers in various areas of developmental psychology and psychiatry consider the issues of precursors and causes used to describe and explain normal and abnormal development Highlights the emergent theoretical interest in biological influences on psychological development

Handbook of Adolescent Development Sandy Jackson, Luc Goossens, 2020-01-29 Handbook of Adolescent Development fills a gap in the literature on adolescent development and behaviour all of the authors of the various chapters were invited to include as many findings on European adolescents as possible Through this specific emphasis the handbook provides a complement to other reviews of the literature that are mostly based on North American samples The contributors are all eminent researchers in the field and the individual chapters cover their specific areas of expertise Theories of adolescence along with emotional physical and cognitive issues are explored Topics covered include families peer relations school and leisure time as well as problem areas such as depression drug consumption and delinquency Handbook of Adolescent Development also incorporates a comprehensive review of the literature in the area and considers avenues for future research This multidisciplinary text will be of interest to those studying and researching in the fields of developmental psychology sociology demography epidemiology and criminology

Sociobiological Perspectives on Human Development Kevin B. MacDonald, 2012-12-06 Examines the importance of evolutionary biology for key issues in human development Illustrates the power of socio biological approaches in understanding developmental phenomena and their importance in generating new empirically verifiable predictions

Causes of Development George Butterworth, Peter Bryant, 1990 The Child as a Cartesian Thinker Eugene Subbotsky, 2015-07-24 Originally published in 1996 this book presents and analyses children's reasonings about fundamental metaphysical problems The first part describes dialogues with children that were constructed on the basis of Descartes Mediations on First Philosophy and which look at children's ideas about the relationships between true and false knowledge mental images and physical objects mind and body personal existence and the external world dreams and reality and the existence of the Supreme Being among others The second part of the book draws on concepts that children of various ages have about psychological and metapsychological aspects of human reality such as cognitive and moral development personal freedom and responsibility the relationships between conscious and unconscious living and non living and about the fundamental drives of an individual for development and expansion of his or her needs and passions for eternal life and for the dreamlike world of fulfilled wishes The book presents a systematic empirical and theoretical study of the problems some of which were touched on in Piaget s early writing but which he later abandoned and which were only sporadically illuminated by other authors whereas others were completely new to research in developmental psychology at the time It will still be a helpful guide for developmental psychologists teachers educationalists social workers lawyers and other professionals interested in the knowledge that 4 to 14 year old children have about the most fundamental aspects of reality and human beings Punishment, Places and Perpetrators Gerben Bruinsma, Henk Elffers, Jan De Keijser, 2012-12-06 This book brings together an influential group of academics and researchers to review key areas of research theory and methodology within criminology and criminal justice and to identify the most important new challenges facing the discipline The contributors focus on the three central themes of punishment and criminal justice location and mobility and perpetrators and criminal careers on which much cutting edge research within criminology has been taking place A particular strength of the book is its multidisciplinary and international approach with contributors drawn from Europe the UK and the United States Educational Psychology for Learning and Teaching Dr Sue Duchesne, Dr Anne McMaugh, 2018-10-01 Educational Psychology for Learning and Teaching introduces key theories of development and learning to help you understand how learners learn and how educators can be more effective in their teaching practice Featuring current research on the various dimensions of learning and teaching alongside traditional theories it provides a clear framework of theory and evidence that supports modern education practices Taking a comprehensive approach this text investigates how to apply psychology principles to education contexts to enhance learning and teaching quality particularly for accommodating individual student needs This wholly Australian and New Zealand text caters for those who are planning to work with any age range from early childhood to adolescence and beyond With a greater focus on resilience in education settings the discussion of creativity alongside intelligence and a broader discussion on diversity this new edition is up to date for the pre service teacher New print versions of this book come with bonus online study tools on the CourseMate Express and Search Me platforms Premium online teaching and learning tools are available to purchase on the MindTap platform Learn more about the online tools cengage.com/au/learning/solutions The Psychologist ,1991 Dynamic Systems of Development Paul van Geert, 1994 The author shows how simple models based on mutual interactions between children and their environments explain not only smooth evolutions but also sudden jumps temporal regressions cycles and chaotic change in cognitive and language development A central concept of the system is non linearity small causes can have big effects and variables may be sensitive to threshold effects Self and Identity--psychosocial Perspectives Krysia M. Yardley-Matwiejczuk, Krysia Yardley, Terry Honess, 1987 This study of self is a growing concern within psychology and related disciplines particularly in social and clinical psychology psychiatry and personality studies Bulletin of the British Psychological Society British Psychological Society, 1986 Transatlantic Studies Will Kaufman, Heidi Slettedahl Macpherson, 2000-10-11 Although our age has become host to a number of academic disciplines called area studies including for example African Studies and American Studies these divisions do not capture the truly unique relationship of the lands joined by the Atlantic Ocean Accordingly a new area called Transatlantic Studies has emerged This seminal work attempts to define clearly the term Transatlantic Studies locate Transatlantic studies academically supply the field's critical perspective discuss issues of globalization migration and the law The collection is appropriately international and inter disciplinary Critical Thinking and Reasoning Daniel Fasko, 2003 THE CHAPTERS and discussions in the volume integrate the various perspectives on critical thinking and stimulate new thinking about thinking Chapters in the first section present several issues that concern critical thinking and discuss the lack of core concepts and structures in the field of teaching and critical thinking Chapter 4 describes Sternberg's theory on how people think The next three chapters focus on the learning and development of critical thinking and reasoning Chapters 10 to 12 focus on the teaching of critical thinking and Chapters 14 though 16 focus on the assessment of critical thinking The epilogue discusses neglected issues in critical thinking Child Development Within Culturally Structured Environments, Volume 3 Jaan Valsiner, 1995 Using a comparative cultural perspective this collection of essays examines the co constructivist nature of human development in culturally organized environments The contributions also cover a large age span infancy to adulthood Chapters in part 1 cover two different directions in the study of early adult infant interaction from a comparative cultural perspective Chapters in part 2 are devoted to child socialization in the cultural ecological contexts of Southern Italy and India Chapters in part 3 examine the co construction of self in adolescence Chapters in part 4 provide a cross cultural analysis of the meaning of intelligence or intellectual competence Following an introduction to the comparative cultural perspective Valsiner the chapter titles are 1 The Study of Early Interaction in a Contextual Perspective Culture Communication and Eye Contact Scholmerich and others 2 Transformation and Construction in Social Interaction A New Perspective on Analysis of the Mother Infant Dyad Lyra and Rossetti Ferreira 3 Amoral Familism and Child Development Edward Banfield and the Understanding of Child Socialization in Southern Italy Benigni and Valsiner 4 Childrearing Practices Relevant for the Growth of Dependency and Competence in Children Sinha 5 Transformation of Women's Social Roles in India Verma 6 A Co Constructivist Perspective of Life Course Changes among Havik Brahmins in a South India Village Ullrich 7 Culture and Self Concept among Adolescents with Bicultural Parentage A Social Constructionist Approach Minoura 8 Persons Conception of Human Nature A Cross Cultural Comparison Oerter 9 The Meaning of Intellectual Competence Views from a Favela Oliveira and 10 Cultural and Environmental Influences in the Acquisition of Concepts of Intellectual Competence Keats An epilogue Comparative Cultural Co Constructionism and its Discontents Valsiner examines some of the difficulties inherent in the comparative cultural co constructionist perspective Each section begins with an editorial introduction and each chapter includes references HTH The Child's Point of View Maureen V.
